AN ORDINANCE MODIFYING MUNICIPAL CODE PART II, CHAPTERS 2, 14 AND 38, CONCERNING GENERAL PROVISIONS FOR CITY ORGANIZATIONS, INCLUDING BOARDS, COMMISSIONS, COMMITTEES, COUNCILS AND TASK FORCES.

WHEREAS, current Municipal Code establishes the creation of City boards, councils, task forces and commissions, and governs their compensation, budgeting, attendance at meetings, minutes of meetings, number of members and service; and

WHEREAS, the Governing Body wishes to eliminate duplicative provisions of Code as part of an ongoing process to reform many of said boards, councils, task forces and commissions; and

WHEREAS, many such boards, councils, task forces, and commissions are governed by their own dedicated sections of Code that set out their methods of appointment, filling vacancies and electing officers, all such language that is duplicative of or occasionally in conflict with other similar sections; and

WHEREAS, the Governing Body desires to amend Municipal Code to eliminate such duplication and conflict by adding these provisions to the general provisions currently set forth for all City boards, councils, task forces and commissions, and applying them equally to committees.

NOW, THEREFORE, IN CONSIDERATION OF THE AFORESTATED PREMISES, BE IT ORDAINED BY THE GOVERNING BODY OF THE CITY OF ARKANSAS CITY, KANSAS:

SECTION ONE: AMENDMENT TO MUNICIPAL CODE PART II, CHAPTER 2, ARTICLE III, DIVISION 1.

The Governing Body of the City of Arkansas City hereby amends Part II, Chapter 2, Article III, Division 1 of the Arkansas City Municipal Code to read as follows (deleted provisions struck through, new provisions in italics):

ARTICLE III. - BOARDS, COMMISSIONS, COMMITTEES, COMMISSIONS COUNCILS, TASK FORCES

DIVISION 1. - GENERALLY

Sec. 2-51. - City organizations—Appointments, meetings, officers, qualifications and vacancies.

(a) Creation and appointments. All members of any board, council, task force, committee or commission created by and existing pursuant to this code (hereafter referred to generally as “board”) shall be appointed by the mayor with the consent of the board of city commissioners, unless otherwise specifically stated in this code.

(b) Regular and special meetings. Unless specifically authorized and exempted by this code or another controlling authority, every board shall meet regularly once a month at such time and place as designated by the chairperson. Special meetings may be called by the chairperson or upon written request signed by a majority of the members of the board. Notice of any special meeting must be given in accordance with K.S.A. 75-4317 through K.S.A. 75-4320f (the “Kansas Open Meetings Act,” hereinafter referred to as “KOMA”).
(c) Cancellation of meetings. If there is no business before a board in a given month, the chairperson may elect to cancel that month’s regular meeting. Multiple consecutive meetings may be canceled at one time with the consent of the board, such as in the case of a summer hiatus. Notice of cancellations must be made in accordance with KOMA.

(d) Election of officers. Each board shall elect, by majority vote, one of its members as a chairperson, who shall serve for a term of one year or until a successor is elected by the board. Each board shall elect, in the same manner and for the same term, one of its members as a vice chairperson, who shall act as chairperson in the event of the chairperson’s absence. The chairperson, or the vice chairperson in the chairperson’s absence, shall preside at and be responsible for the conduct of all board meetings. Each board also shall designate a secretary, who may be a member of the board or an employee of the city, to record the minutes of its meetings.

(e) Other offices. Unless specifically authorized and exempted by this code or another controlling authority, no board member may hold any other public office of the city, except membership on no more than one other board as appointed by the board of city commissioners. The planning commission and board of zoning appeals shall be counted as one board for the purposes of this subsection.

(f) Vacancies and terms. In the event a vacancy shall occur during the term of any board member, the successor shall be appointed to the remainder of the unexpired term. Whenever possible, resigning board members shall serve until their successors have been appointed and qualified. The length of terms shall be set for each board within this code. All terms shall be staggered so that the terms of no more than half of the board’s membership shall expire in the same calendar year.

Sec. 2-52. - City organizations—Compensation.

All members of any board, council, task force, or commission created by and existing pursuant to this Code shall serve without compensation, unless the board of city commissioners or another controlling authority specifically authorizes otherwise.

Sec. 2-53. - Same—Budgeting.

No board, council, task force, or commission created by and existing pursuant to this Code shall be budgeted funding or otherwise receive funding from the city, unless the board of city commissioners, this code, or another controlling authority specifically authorizes or requires otherwise.

Sec. 2-54. - Same—Attendance at meetings.

(a) Absenteeism. Any member of any board, council, task force, or commission created by and existing pursuant to this Code who is absent without prior excuse for three consecutive regular meetings or six regular meetings within a one-year period of his or her respective board, council, task force, or commission within one year shall be deemed to have resigned and shall be replaced through the procedure for appointing new members to that organization board, unless extenuating circumstances warrant otherwise; or the board of city commissioners or another controlling authority specifically allows otherwise. Nothing herein prohibits the mayor from reappointing the resigning member at a future time.

(b) Determination of absence. Absences that shall be considered excused shall include, but shall not necessarily be limited to, those arising due to emergencies, medical conditions or military leave of less than two months, or when circumstances arise that warrant a special exception, in the judgment of the board chairperson. Other situations, such as an unavoidable work conflict, bereavement or vacation, shall be designated as excused absences only with the consent of the board chairperson. Any absence by a board member who has not previously notified the board chairperson about the absence shall be considered unexcused. The secretary of the board shall note any absence on a city-provided form, along with the reason for the absence, and the board chairperson shall sign said form after noting whether it is an excused or unexcused absence. Forms shall be submitted on a monthly basis to the city freedom of information officer or the city public records custodian.

Sec. 2-55. - Same—Minutes of meetings.

The secretary of every board, council, task force, or commission created by and existing pursuant to this Code or a designated city employee shall submit the minutes of every meeting of that organization board to the board of city commissioners upon request.

Sec. 2-56. - Same—Number of board members.

No board, council, task force, or commission created by and existing pursuant to this Code shall have less than five or more than nine voting members, unless the board of city commissioners, this code, or another controlling authority specifically authorizes or requires otherwise.

Sec. 2-57. - Same—Service.

Despite Regardless of the length of any term contained of appointment specified within this code, members of all boards, councils, task forces, and/or commissions created by and existing pursuant to ordinance and/or this Code serve at the pleasure of the board of city commissioners, and may be removed from their offices at any time, with or without cause, upon by a vote of at least four members of the board of city commissioners.

Sec. 2-58—2-87. - Reserved.

SECTION TWO: AMENDMENT TO MUNICIPAL CODE PART II, CHAPTER 2, ARTICLE III, DIVISION 2.

The Governing Body of the City of Arkansas City hereby amends Part II, Chapter 2, Article III, Division 2, Sec. 2-88 and Sec. 2-90 of the Arkansas City Municipal Code to read as follows (deleted provisions struck through, new provisions in italics):

DIVISION 2. - CITY BEAUTIFICATION AND TREE ADVISORY BOARD

Sec. 38-21. - Creation, operation and responsibilities of historic preservation board.

(a) Creation and composition and qualifications. The board of city commissioners hereby creates a historic preservation board to consist of five members. All members of the board shall be appointed by the mayor with the consent of the board of city commissioners. The mayor shall make every reasonable effort to appoint persons with a demonstrated interest, knowledge or training in fields closely related to historic preservation, such as history, architecture, landscape architecture, architectural history, archeology, planning, engineering, real estate, law, finance, building trades, urban design or geography. At least two members shall be in a preservation-related profession, such as archeology, architectural history, conservation, cultural anthropology, curatorship, engineering, folklore, historic architecture, historic landscape architecture, historic preservation planning, historic preservation or history, unless the board of city commissioners provides written documentation to the state historic preservation office that it has been unsuccessful, despite reasonable efforts, in appointing such members. The state historic preservation office shall be provided with the résumé and/or qualifications of all board members.

(b) Term of office. Each member of the historic preservation board shall be appointed for a three-year term. Such terms shall be staggered. In the event a vacancy shall occur during the term of any member, the successor shall be appointed to serve the remainder of the unexpired term.

(c) Operation. Ex officio members. The historic preservation board shall choose its own officers, establish its own rules and regulations, and keep a record of its meetings. Three appointed members shall be considered a quorum for the transaction of any business. City commissioners or their designees shall be considered ex officio members of the historic preservation board entitled to attend all meetings and have an opportunity to provide input, but they shall not have the authority to vote.

(d) Continuing education. The historic preservation board shall participate in continuing education as required by the board of city commissioners.

(e) Duties and responsibilities. All of the powers and duties enumerated herein are subject to approval, denial or modification by the board of city commissioners. Further, all funds necessary to carry out the purpose of this article shall be approved and appropriated by the board of city commissioners. In addition to other responsibilities specified in this article, the historic preservation board may:

1. Adopt its own bylaws and procedures related to the conduct of meetings subject to the laws of the state, the policies and ordinances of the city, and the policies of the state historic preservation office.

2. Recommend to the board of city commissioners that the city conducts an ongoing survey to identify historically and architecturally significant properties, structures, and areas that exemplify the cultural, social, economic, political, or architectural history of the nation, state or city.

3. Identify historic structures, historic sites and historic districts eligible for listing in the city register of historic places.

4. Make recommendations to the board of city commissioners on applications for designation and the adoption of ordinances designating properties having historic, community, or architectural value as historic structures, historic sites or historic districts.

5. Research and recommend to the board of city commissioners an appropriate system of markers for designated historic structures, historic sites and historic districts.

6. Review all proposed national register of historic places and state register of historic places nominations for properties within the city, pursuant to the guidelines established by the state historic preservation office.

7. Recommend that the board of city commissioners inform and educate the citizens of Arkansas City concerning the historic and architectural heritage of the city, and advise and assist owners of designated historic structures, historic sites, or historic districts of physical and financial aspects of preservation, rehabilitation, and restoration by publishing appropriate maps, newsletters, brochures and pamphlets, and by holding programs, workshops and seminars.

8. Review applications for certificates of appropriateness pursuant to this article.
(9) Make recommendations to the board of city commissioners regarding funding for the purpose of carrying out the duties and powers of the historic preservation board, and the purposes of this article.

(10) Make recommendations to the board of city commissioners regarding retaining such specialists or consultants, or recommend appointing such citizen advisory committees, as may be required from time to time.

(11) Advise other city boards on any matter affecting significant historic structures, historic sites and historic districts.

(12) Periodically make recommendations to the board of city commissioners regarding actions it deems appropriate for the protection and continued use of significant historic structures, historic sites, and historic districts.

(13) Recommend to the board of city commissioners that board members be encouraged to participate in a historic preservation-related educational program each year.

(14) Undertake any other action or activity necessary or appropriate to the implementation of its powers and duties, or to the implementation of the purpose of this article.

(15) Review and make recommendations upon all actions requiring building or demolition permits on properties listed on the national, state and/or city register of historic places.

SECTION SEVEN: The Governing Body of the City of Arkansas City hereby authorizes the Mayor and/or City Manager of the City of Arkansas City to take such further and other necessary actions that are required to effectuate the intent and purposes of this Legislative Enactment.

SECTION EIGHT: PUBLICATION; EFFECTIVE DATE. This ordinance, or a summary thereof, shall be published one time in the official City newspaper, and shall take effect and be in force from and after said publication.

PASSED AND ORDAINED by the Governing Body of the City of Arkansas City, Kansas, on this 18th day of October, 2016.
