

There was a special meeting of the Flemingsburg City Council Monday April 25, 2022, at 6:00 p.m. in the City Annex. Council members present were Ricky Hurst, Angie Graham, Blake Harmon, Amy Bolar, Danny Carpenter, and Van Alexander. Mayor Bobby Money presided.

Stephanie Emmons, Fleming County High School Principal, came forward to talk to council about wanting to hold prom downtown. She introduced two students Kayla Hamilton, President of the Student Council, and Jenna Utterback. Kayla went over the papers provided to council and the mayor of the plan for Prom downtown. Such as where they would block off streets, where parking would be, and where parents can watch from bleachers. She also provided they had either written or verbal approval from all business downtown that would be affected. Jenna Utterback provided a prom permission form for all students who would attend would have to sign with rules to follow provided it was held downtown.

After discussion with both students, principal Emmons, and Chief Bowling Councilman Harmon made the motion to allow prom to be held downtown. Councilwoman Bolar seconded the motion. Roll call vote was as followed: Hurst For, Graham For, Harmon For, Alexander For, Bolar For, Carpenter For.

There being no further business, Councilwoman Bolar moved to adjourn at 6:29 p.m. Councilwoman Graham seconded the motion.

Robert Money, Mayor
