Dear Mr. Crosley:

Attached for the Governing Boards consideration is a request for Waterway Cleanup Assistance to fund a beach and river clean-up on September 17, 2016 for the 28th Annual Halifax and Indian River Lagoon (HIRL) and 31st Annual Ocean Conservancy International Coastal Cleanup (ICC) hosted locally by Volusia County Environmental Management. Prior to 2012, these events were held separately, on different dates, and organized by different program areas within Volusia County Environmental Management. In 2012, these cleanups were successfully combined to be held on the same day and organized by the same program personnel. In 2015, this popular event had a great volunteer turnout with 1,255 adults and 284 children in attendance. In total, participants cleaned over 7,400 pounds of trash and recyclables from 34 coastal sites via walking on foot, motor boats, scuba diving, paddleboards and kayaks. This total includes over 78 pounds of fishing line and debris removed during an underwater scuba diving clean-up event at the Ponce Inlet north jetty.

During this event, participants not only remove and dispose of the trash and recyclables from our waterways, but they record the types of trash found on a data card provided by the Ocean Conservancy. In total during 2015, 99,719 total trash items were collected and recorded by volunteers. This included approximately 1028 yards of fishing line, 11 appliances, 54 tires, 695 balloons, 41,015 cigarette butts, 2,679 beverage cans and 563 fireworks. The beverage can and fireworks categories had the most ever removed during a local event!

The top ten items collected during the event were:

Top Ten Trash Items Found During Clean-ups	2013 Total Items	2014 Total Items	2015 Total Items
