An Ordinance to Amend the Code of the Borough of Haddonfield in the County of Camden, State of New Jersey to Create a New Chapter 176 Entitled “Registration of Defaulted Mortgages”

WHEREAS, the Borough of Haddonfield (hereafter “Haddonfield”) desires to protect the public health, safety and welfare of the citizens of the Haddonfield and maintain a high quality of life for the citizens of Haddonfield through the maintenance of structures and properties in Haddonfield; and

WHEREAS, properties that are neglected and have unsecured, accessible structures have an impact on community value, create conditions that invite wrongdoing, and may foster an unsafe and unhealthy environment; and

WHEREAS, the present mortgage foreclosure crisis has implications for all communities trying to manage the consequences of properties that have defaulted mortgages, are in the foreclosure process, foreclosed upon and/or mortgagee owned; and

WHEREAS, often times, the foreclosing party or property owners are an absentee responsible party, and there is no local contact for such a property, which makes it difficult to notice the proper party of the violations of the Haddonfield Code, and to maintain the requisite level of maintenance and security on such structures or lots; and

WHEREAS, Haddonfield recognizes that there are properties with defaulted mortgages and subject to foreclosure action or foreclosed upon, (hereinafter referred to as “registrable properties”) located in the Borough of Haddonfield which may create nuisances and lead to a general decrease in neighborhood and community aesthetic; and

WHEREAS, Haddonfield has already adopted property maintenance codes to regulate building standards and the condition of the property as a whole; and

WHEREAS, Haddonfield recognizes in the best interest of the public health, safety and welfare a more regulated method is needed to discourage registrable property owners and mortgagees from allowing their properties to be abandoned, neglected or left unsupervised; and

WHEREAS, Haddonfield has a vested interest in protecting neighborhoods and concludes that it is in the best interests of the health, safety, and welfare of its citizens and residents to impose registration requirements of registrable property located within the Borough of Haddonfield to discourage registrable property owners and mortgagees from allowing their properties to be abandoned, neglected or left unsupervised; and
WHEREAS, Haddonfield desires to amend Haddonfield's code in order to establish a property registration process that will identify a contact person to address safety and aesthetic concerns to minimize the impact and conditions that occur as a result of the foreclosure process.

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT ORDAINED by the Board of Commissioners, Borough of Haddonfield, County of Camden, state of New Jersey that the following chapter be added as follows:
