

Regaining Life

As a participant in Veterans Court I was helped in many ways. I was assisted both financially, and through receiving benefits from Veterans Administration. Most importantly I was assisted in regaining life. I never knew what real happiness was until then.