1. APPROVAL OF MINUTES OF June 20, 2017

Motion made and seconded to approve the minutes of June 20, 2017

Vote: Unanimous

2. NEW BUSINESS

2a) Massac Yamato Hibachi & Sushi Bar Variance Request

Zhen Kui Tian, owner of Yamato Hibachi & Sushi Bar, appeared before the Board to request a variance for Sushi Rice Acidification. Sushi preparation allows rice to be kept at room temperature with an added component acidifying the rice so that bacteria will not grow.

Motion made and seconded to approve the variance request

Vote: Unanimous

2b) Request for Hearing: Linda Curran, Owner 48 Maple Street

Linda Curran appeared before the Board to ask that her hearing be dismissed.

2c) Son of Shephanie's Permit Revocation Hearing

The Director informed the Board that the electricity has been shut off twice in the past year and the Sanitarian has not been able to set up an inspection. The Department has left many messages and sent letters to the establishment with no response.

Motion made and seconded to revoke Son of Shephanie's Food Permit

Vote: Unanimous

2d) Board of Appeals: 973 University Ave, Bituminous Concrete Manufacturing Facility

A new bituminous concrete manufacturing facility is proposing a location at 973 University Avenue. Letter filed for information.

2e) Tobacco Compliance Checks Results

There was one violation in our compliance checks out of approximately forty stores that were checked. The store is still within the twenty-one day period to either pay the fine or request a hearing. The Board expressed interest on capping the number of tobacco retailers. The Director will present options at the next Board meeting.

3. OLD BUSINESS
