

Return of Equipment Agreement

I understand that whenever there is an end date for my employment status, whether that date is chosen by me or by my employer, all uniforms and equipment owned by the County, shall be returned when agreed upon with the Department Head.

I understand that the County retains any and all legal and equitable remedies to secure the return of this equipment, including by way of example only and not to exclude any unstated remedy, prosecution or wage garnishments with any of my current or future employers. I understand that these remedies shall also include any and all reasonable attorney fees incurred by the County as a result of my failure to promptly return County property and equipment.
