Old Business:

New Business:

County Clerk:

Health Department: Susan Long presented the yearly report. Out of 114 counties Osage County was ranked 13th, but with community outreach and staff efforts Osage County is now ranked number 4 out of 114. Commissioners sent the congratulations to the Health Department Staff. Osage County will participate in the new shingles vaccine. Susan Long has order 50-60 does that is expected to make its arrival sometime in February. Susan Long said that it is a two dose vaccine and is supposed to be 85-90% better than the original vaccine. Anyone over the age of 50 should get the vaccine. If you've had shingles in the past, you need to wait 6 months before getting the shot since you are still susceptible to getting shingles again. Susan stated that she is possibly going to be out for roughly 2 months due to a knee replacement.

Road & Bridge:

Foreman Ron Kempker stated that plow trucks were out on the roads last night into today due to snowfall. Ron stated that black tops are slicker than the County Roads are. Plow trucks went down to CR 531 and plowed the road since the final walk through is scheduled for today.
