Bills, Notes and Communication:

Meetings:

-Mammogram Van is scheduled for January 10th, 2020.

Old Business:

New Business:

-Ronnie Staggs from MSMA presented to commission different health insurance options for the employees of Osage County.

-Staggs stated that quotes from Aetna came in but Cigna and Anthem did not due to not being competitive enough.

-Staggs went over each individual plan and explained coverage, cost and savings for the county and its employees.

-Staggs stated that with Aetna they only allow up to 4 options, Staggs recommends doing 3 options which would include the $2,500 deductible, $3,500 deductible and the $5,000 high deductible which is the HSA plan.

-Commission asked those in attendance what their thoughts were on the idea of switching. Several employees stated they would like to see the change made due to savings and better in-network options.

-All employees in attendance say yes to having the new insurance.

-Commissioner Kliethermes made a motion to accept Aetna and 3 plans, Commissioner Glavin seconded the motion, followed by unanimous ayes by staff and commission.

Adjournment:
