Bills, Notes and Communication:

- Commissioner Griffin will be attending MRPC Operation zoom meeting today
- Commissioner Griffin will also be attending MRPC Board zoom meeting today
- Commissioners received a letter from Michael Harris, Missouri Emergency Response Commission. MERC is working on researching a facility plan. Not only do they do this kind of research they also work on other plans for emergency management plans.
- All Commissioners received county taxes reports

Road & Bridge:

-Still hiring. Ads are online. Deadline to apply for Assistant Foreman Position will close today, March 11, 2021 with interview process starting Tuesday March 16, 2021.

Health Department:

-Needing volunteers for Monday vaccine clinics if anyone would like to help.

911:

- Ron Hoffman came up reporting the tornado drill went really well.
- 125gallon fuel tank on back of EOC truck has been taken off and stored appropriately.
- Generator was washed up and put away.
- Still waiting on the actual application so that the interview process can start. Ron states, I really appreciate the people who have stepped up and helped.

Building and Grounds:

- John Kennedy presented signs to get commissioners approval. Due to Commissioner Trenshaw being out, Commissioner Griffin messaged Commissioner Trenshaw to get his opinion if we need "at owners' expense" for the towing non-employee vehicles. After communication with Amanda Grellner, commissioners choose to have "at owners' expense" on the signs.
- Kennedy said when we haul rock for the extended parking area, we really need more rock on the existing parking lot.

New Business:

-Kelly Sink came by on Wednesday to help better understand how to write grants and a refresher for others.
