Road Commission for Oakland County

The Road Commission for Oakland County is responsible for maintaining approximately 265 miles of county road and 862 bridges throughout the county. The commission is a multidisciplinary group of professionals dedicated to providing safe, efficient, and environmentally responsible transportation services to the residents of Oakland County. The commission is committed to the principles of excellence in service and professionalism, and its focus is on the long-term needs of the community.

Oakland County Sheriff's Office

The Oakland County Sheriff's Office is responsible for maintaining law and order in the county, providing a range of services to the community, and ensuring the safety and security of individuals. The office is committed to providing quality, professional service to the residents of Oakland County.

Oakland County Parks & Recreation

Oakland County Parks & Recreation manages over 150 parks, including beaches, nature reserves, and sports facilities, throughout the county. The department is committed to providing a variety of services and activities for residents of all ages and abilities.

Michigan Department of Natural Resources

The Michigan Department of Natural Resources is responsible for managing and preserving Michigan’s natural resources. The department works to conserve and protect the state’s forests, water, wildlife, and parks, and to promote outdoor recreation and education.

Oakland County Trails Advisory Council

The Oakland County Trails Advisory Council is a group of stakeholders from various organizations and individuals who are working together to develop, maintain, and promote Oakland County's trail system. The council is committed to creating a network of trails that offers a variety of options for recreation and transportation.

Michigan Mountain Bike Association

The Michigan Mountain Bike Association (MBA) is a not-for-profit organization dedicated to promoting and improving mountain biking in Michigan. MBA works to improve trails, promote safe riding, and educate the public about the benefits of mountain biking.

Michigan Trails & Greenways Alliance

The Michigan Trails & Greenways Alliance is a network of organizations and individuals committed to creating a statewide network of trails and greenways. The alliance works to promote the development and maintenance of trails and greenways, and to provide a variety of recreation opportunities for residents of Michigan.

Water Trails

Oakland County has more trails than any other county in the state. There are more than 1,400 lakes and nearly 1,000 miles of water trails throughout the county. The trails provide opportunities for recreation, exercise, and exploration.

Leisure of Michigan Bicyclists

The League of Michigan Bicyclists is a nonprofit organization that promotes bicycling for recreation, transportation, and environmental reasons. The league works to improve cycling infrastructure, promote safe riding, and advocate for cycling-friendly policies.

Oakland County Business Council

The Oakland County Business Council is an organization that promotes economic development and growth in Oakland County. The council focuses on creating a business-friendly environment, attracting new businesses, and supporting existing businesses.

Southern Michigan's Hickin Michaan

Michigan Woodland Corridor

Woodward Avenue is a designated National Scenic Byway. The corridor stretches from Detroit to Port Huron, providing a scenic route for visitors to explore Michigan’s natural beauty. The corridor features several parks, trails, and other recreational opportunities, including bike trails, canoe and kayak trails, and nature trails.