

Michael Rosales

Community Outreach Coordinator

Hello! My name is Michael Rosales and I am excited for the direction our City is headed and for what's in store for our community! I have been appointed as the City's Community Outreach Coordinator. In this position I will assist the City Manager with maintaining all community outreach activities. This includes, overseeing the planning and implementation of outreach strategies, connecting people in the broader community, and cultivating relationships with businesses, churches, individuals, and other relevant organizations.

One of my goals is to foster a culture of volunteerism. A community that is willing to go above and beyond in helping its fellow citizens through volunteer efforts is a community that will thrive in any political or economic condition. While I believe Andrews to be a great place to live, my desire is to make and keep Andrews a place where people love to live.

It is an honor and a privilege to serve the public and my community in this position. I will do my best to address the issues at hand and continue to move forward in making Andrews a City of Excellence.

Together, we can make a difference!
