4. Antrim County Master Plan: Economic Development

The EDC was advised that the planning commission has started working on the master plan and worked through the first few chapters cutting away superfluous text. A discussion ensued regarding the Economic Development chapter in the Master Plan.

It was generally expressed that updated data was needed before making any large changes.

The corporation requested that the Administration office update data in the chapter and send it back out.

There was a discussion of involving the NLEA more with the planning process and the NLEA was invited to a work-session with the Antrim County EDC at their May 17 meeting.

5. Various Matters

Replacement of a recently resigned member was discussed and it was established that the membership is to be not less than nine.

6. Public/Member Comment
