11.150. Procedure

1. Pre-application procedure

Not less than 30 days before preparing and submitting the preliminary plat to the Planning and Zoning Commission, the developer or designated agent shall consult with the representative of the Planning and Zoning Commission, to ascertain the location of proposed highways, primary or secondary thoroughfares, collector streets, parkways, parks, playgrounds, school sites and other community facilities or planned developments and to acquaint said developer with the Planning and Zoning Commission's requirements. The geographic scope of this review shall include the whole contiguous property held in common ownership for which whole or partial subdivision platting is desired by the subdivider, as well as the surrounding property which might reasonably be affected by subdivision of the subject property.

(amended Council Bill No. 2007-049, 12-04-2007)

2. Preliminary Plat

The developer shall prepare a preliminary plat of the proposed subdivision, which shall conform to the requirements set forth in Section 11.155 at least Thirty (30) calendar days prior to the meeting of the Planning Commission at which approval of said plat is requested. (amended Council Bill No. 2006-055, 12-19-2006) (amended Council Bill No. 2008-010, 2-18-2008)

3. Review of preliminary plat

The preliminary plat shall be examined by the Planning Commission's representative to determine whether it complies with the City Plan of Ashland, Missouri. In "addition", said representative shall determine whether the plat complies with the standards and requirements hereinafter prescribed. Finally, said representative shall examine the plat to determine compliance with any other government and public utility regulations.

4. Final Plat

Following approval of the preliminary plat, by the Planning Commission, the developer shall file with the Planning Commission the final plat of the proposed subdivision. The final plat may include all or any part of the land proposed for subdivision on the approved preliminary plat. The developer shall be required to complete improvements, or to post security for the completion of such improvements as hereinafter required, for that portion of the preliminary plat for which final plat approval is requested.

5. Approval, disapproval and modification by Planning Commission

The approval of the Planning Commission or its refusal to approve said plat shall take place within 60 days from and after the submission of the plat for final approval, unless the owner or developer agrees in writing to an extension of this time period. In the event the Planning Commission takes no action on a final plat within the allotted time, said final plat shall be deemed to have been approved and the certificate of said Planning Commission stating the date of the submission of the plat for approval and as to said Planning Commission's failure to act thereon within the allotted time shall be sufficient in lieu of the written endorsement or evidence of approval herein required. The basis for the Planning Commission's refusal to approve any plat submitted shall be stated upon the record of the Planning Commission.
