A BRIEF HISTORY OF BARRY COUNTY

Barry County was organized by an act of the Legislature on March 15th, 1839.

First election was held the first Monday in April 1839.

First settler to take up land in Barry County was at Prairieville in 1835.

First school taught in Barry County was in Middleville in 1835.

First Circuit Court was held in Barry County May 6, 1830, at Hastings.

First courthouse was built in 1844 and burned in 1846. That courthouse was rebuilt and used until the present courthouse and Jail were built in 1893.

First newspaper published in Hastings in 1851.

(From Potter's History of Barry County)

Barry County is located in Southern Michigan in the third row of counties. It is comprised of sixteen Townships: Assyria, Baltimore, Barry, Carlton, Castleton, Hastings, Hope, Irving, Johnstown, Maple Grove, Orangeville, Prairieville, Rutland, Thornapple, Woodland and Yankee Springs; one City, Hastings; also four incorporated Villages: Nashville, Middleville, Woodland, and Freeport.

Yankee Springs Recreation Area with a tract of almost 4,255 acres, and over three miles of frontage on Gun Lake, was developed by the National Park Service and is adjacent to the 10,700 acre State game area all of which is an outstanding attraction now maintained by the State Conservation Department in Barry County.

Charlton Park encompasses 332 acres. Most of the Park's flowing wells are contained. The park has picnic facilities, playground equipment, a beach and boat launch. The museum is free to Barry County residents showing proof of residency on all but Special Event days. The museum collection contains Native American and pioneer artifacts, which may be on display or in storage.
