SITE OVERVIEW

Protecting clean air and clean water improves our quality of life and preserves the local environment for our children and future generations.

Spills at work sites can flow into storm drains and pollute the ocean or bay. These spills are prohibited by law.

The following drawings illustrate Best Management Practices (BMPs) that must be used at all construction sites in the City to protect storm drains and minimize pollution.

This handout must be posted on-site at all times.