Redistricting occurs every 10 years following the release of the Census results. It redraws district lines based on population changes indicated in the Census at the State, County and City levels.

You can be a part of the redistricting process by drawing and submitting a map yourself!

Head over to drawbellflower.org