They brought me back to where I am today

Quintina Davis, patient recovering from COVID-19

65-year-old Quintina Davis is back in her Battle Creek home after spending nearly a month at Bronson Battle Creek Hospital being treated for COVID 19, followed by more than a week in rehabilitation.

"I felt horrible," says Quintina, recalling what it was like as she battled the virus. "I did have a fever for a few days, and they finally got it down. The dizziness and headaches were the worst. I was off balance. My biggest problem was my oxygen levels would go down when I walk or stand up or talk."

Quintina savs her career experience as a social
