THIS INFORMATION IS PROVIDED AS A SERVICE BY THE FRIEND OF THE COURT. STAFF MEMBERS ARE NOT ALLOWED TO PROVIDE LEGAL ADVICE REGARDING PROCEDURES OR THE COMPLETION OF THE ATTACHED FORMS. OPTING OUT OF FRIEND OF THE COURT SERVICES

INTRODUCTION

The Friend of the Court Act was amended effective December, 2002 to allow parties in domestic relations cases to “opt out” of Friend of the Court services (in effect, agreeing to assume all responsibility for administering and enforcing their own case), under certain conditions. People who wish to do without Friend of the Court services must assure compliance with the statutory qualifications, acknowledge the services they are willing to do without, and obtain an order signed by the Judge to whom their case is assigned making their case a non-Friend of the Court case. Note: Opting out of Friend of the Court Services means accepting responsibility for ALL enforcement, including child support, medical support, parenting time, and custody issues. If the case subsequently becomes a Friend of the Court case, enforcement of any provisions for the period the case was NOT a Friend of the Court case remains the responsibility of the parties.

PROCEDURE

The parties must each read and sign the Advice of Rights Regarding Use of Friend of the Court Services (FOC101). The parties must then complete a Motion to Opt Out of Friend of the Court Services (sample attached) and obtain a hearing date and time (see below). Once you have your hearing information, complete the Notice of Hearing and Certificate of Mailing. The Motion and Notice must be mailed to all interested parties at least 9 days before the hearing date. The Motion, the Advice of Rights, and the Notice of Hearing with Certificate of Mailing must then be filed with the Circuit Court Clerk, with a copy for the Friend of the Court, and the appropriate filing fee must be paid (currently $20.00).

Obtaining a Hearing: Motions to Opt Out of Friend of the Court Services are heard by the Family Division Referees. Each case is assigned to a Referee, and a hearing date and time must be obtained from the assigned Referee’s Assistant. You must call (269) 969-6500 to speak with the Friend of the Court Information Services Unit Representative. Inform the Representative that you need to obtain a hearing date for a Referee Hearing on your Motion to Opt Out of Friend of the Court Services. You will be transferred to the assigned Referee Assistant who will give you a hearing date and time, and provide you with the proper hearing room number. If the Referee Assistant is unavailable, please leave a voice mail message and your call will be returned.

Note: A Motion to Opt Out of Friend of the Court Services must be agreed to by both parties (i.e. a “stipulation”). Both parties must appear before the Referee for the hearing, so that the Referee can be assured that both parties are in agreement, that the case qualifies to opt out, and that opting out is not contrary to the best interest of the child(ren).

The parties now file this Motion to Opt Out of Friend of the Court Services pursuant to MCL 552.505a and affirm to the Court as follows:

- 1) We willfully wish to assume full responsibility for administration and enforcement of obligations imposed in our case, and understand that opting out of Friend of the Court services does not release us from obligations imposed in the orders entered in our case,
- 2) We have filed with the Court Clerk an Advice of Rights Regarding Use of Friend of the Court Services (FOC101). We each have willfully signed this form and understand fully its impact for our child(ren) and ourselves.
- 3) We state affirmatively that neither party is receiving public assistance, there is no arrearage owed to any governmental agency that provided assistance, that no support arrearage or custody or parenting time order violation has occurred in the previous 12 months, that neither party has reopened a friend of the court case in the previous 12 months, and that there is no history of domestic violence or uneven bargaining positions, and
- 4) That neither of us has chosen to close the friend of the court case against the best interest of either party or our child(ren).

WHEREFORE, the parties hereto request that the Court enter an Order Exempting Case from Friend of the Court Services.

1. Right to Refuse Friend of the Court Services

- a. You have the right to refuse friend of the court services for custody, parenting time, and support. To decline friend of the court services, you must file with the court a motion requesting that friend of the court services not be required. You must attach a signed copy of this advice of rights to the motion. The court will grant the motion provided both parties agree and have signed this advice of rights and it determines that all the following are true.
 - 1) Under MCL 552.505a, neither of you receives or has received public assistance or requests friend of the court services.
 - 2) There is no evidence of domestic violence or of an uneven bargaining position between you.
 - 3) The court finds that declining to receive friend of the court services is not against the best interests of a child.
- b. If you already have a friend of the court case, you can file a motion to discontinue friend of the court services provided both parties agree and have signed this advice of rights and the court finds that all the following are true.
 - 1) Neither of you receives public assistance or requests friend of the court services.
 - 2) There is no evidence of domestic violence or an uneven bargaining position between you.
 - 3) The court finds that declining to receive friend of the court services is not against the best interests of a child.
 - 4) No money is due the governmental entity because of past public assistance.
 - 5) No arrearage or violation of a custody or parenting-time order has occurred in the last 12 months.
 - 6) Neither of you has reopened a friend of the court case in the last 12 months.

2. Friend of the Court Services (you will not receive these services if you choose not to use the friend of the court)

a. Accounting Services

Friends of the court must collect support and disburse it within 48 hours. Friend of the court accounting services include:

- 1) friend of the court accounting for payments received and sent,
- 2) adjustments of support for parenting time or other credits, and
- 3) annual statements of accounts, if requested.

b. Support Enforcement Services

The friend of the court must begin to enforce support when one month of support is overdue. For friend of the court cases, child-support enforcement services include:

- paying support out of tax refunds.
- asking the court to order the nonpaying party to come to court to explain the failure to pay.
- having unpaid support paid out of property the payer owns.
- reporting support arrearage to a consumer reporting agency or requesting that the payer's license(s) be suspended.
- collecting support by an income withholding order.

If you choose not to receive friend of the court services, any existing income withholding source will be notified that the friend of the court is no longer responsible for income withholding. The parties will be solely responsible for stopping or changing income withholding as the law allows. The friend of the court will stop any unfinished collection actions.

c. Medical Support Enforcement Services

The friend of the court is required to recommend how the parents divide health-care expenses and to take action to collect the amounts that a parent fails or refuses to pay. When a parent is required to insure the children, the friend of the court is authorized to instruct an employer to enroll the children in an insurance plan when the parent fails or refuses to do so.

d. Support Review and Modification Services

Once every three years, persons with friend of the court cases may request the friend of the court to review the support amount. After completing the review, the friend of the court must file a motion to raise or lower support, or inform the parties that it recommends no change. It must also review support when changed circumstances lead it to believe that support should be modified.

e. Custody and Parenting-Time Investigation Services

For disputes about custody or parenting time in friend of the court cases, the friend of the court sometimes must investigate and provide reports to the parties and the court.

f. Mediation Services

Friend of the court offices must provide mediation services to help parties with friend of the court cases settle custody and parenting-time disputes.

g. Custody and Parenting-Time Enforcement Services

For friend of the court cases, the friend of the court must enforce custody and parenting time when a party complains that it is violated. Child-custody and parenting-time enforcement services include:

g. Custody and Parenting-Time Enforcement Services (continued from page 1)

- asking the court to order the noncooperating party to come to court to explain the failure to obey the parenting-time order.
- suspending the licenses of individuals who deny parenting time.
- awarding makeup parenting time.
- joint meetings to resolve complaints.

3. Michigan State Disbursement Unit and IV-D Services

a. Michigan State Disbursement Unit (MiSDU)

If you choose not to receive friend of the court services, you may continue to make and receive child support payments through MiSDU. MiSDU will keep track of the amount paid and sent out. However, MiSDU cannot provide you with all the accounting functions the friend of the court provides. All payments made through MiSDU must be distributed according to the amounts due as required by federal law. When a payer has more than one case, federal law determines how a payment is divided among the cases. Even if you choose not to receive friend of the court services, payments through MiSDU must be divided among all a payer's cases and distributed in the same manner as payments on friend of the court cases. You cannot discontinue friend of the court services if you want to use MiSDU unless you first provide to MiSDU all the information that MiSDU needs to set up an account.

b. Your Rights Under Title IV-D of the Social Security Act

Title IV-D of the Social Security Act provides federal government resources to collect child support and it allows certain funding to be used for parenting-time and custody services. In Michigan, critical Title IV-D services are delivered by the friend of the court. If you choose not to receive friend of the court services, you cannot receive most Title IV-D services.

4. Public Assistance

Receipt of public assistance means receipt of any of the following benefits: cash assistance, medical assistance, food assistance, foster care, and/or child care.
