

Sample Map Diagram-Soil Erosion

For a soil erosion permit several items need to be depicted on your site diagram: the nearest intersection(s) and the distance to the intersection from your project, the location of the project excavation on the property, property lines, obvious landmarks, the type of soil erosion control measures you plan to use, the distance to any waterways or swampy areas and the degree of land sloping toward the wet area (shown in contour lines).

