New Business:

Agenda Item #1 – Communication of August 8, 2017 from Alex Train of Planning & Development, requesting a one day parking restriction to facilitate a local, City sponsored celebration of International Parking Day on Broadway, Hawthorne and Winnisimmet Street on September 15, 2017. Alex Train stated that he reexamined the event details with Mimi Graney, Bert Taverna and Ned Keefe. They drafted a plan to place barriers around the parking spaces and to add handicapped ramps from the curb into the parking space. Len Albanese asked if the city has any liability concerns and if Bert Taverna and Ned Keefe were in agreement with the plan. Alex Train stated that Bert and Ned were in agreement and the event would be from 9 am to 2 pm. Fidel Maltez, of DPW, stated that DPW will install and remove the barriers and ramps after the event. He noted that each park-let will be engulfed and protected. Len Albanese made a motion to approve. Jorge Pazos second the motion. Motion was accepted unanimously.

Alex Train made a motion to adjourn. Len Albanese seconded the motion. The motion passed unanimously.

Meeting adjourned at 6:15 p.m.
