Wisconsin law provides victims of crime with specific rights

The Wisconsin Constitution (Article I, Section 9m) and Wis. Stat. Chapter 950 give special rights to victims of crime. Some rights are automatic while others must be requested. The Wisconsin Department of Justice Victim Resource Center can provide you with information about victims' rights as well as victim services in your area. call 1-800-446-6564 or access a directory online <http://www.doj.state.wi.us/ocvs>.

Please note that it is not always clear to whom victims' rights apply at different stages of a case. Use the information on this form to discuss and clarify your rights with the agencies you are in contact with about the case and to make your interests known.

If you are the victim of domestic abuse

You may contact a domestic violence victim service provider to plan for your safety and take steps to protect yourself, including filing a petition under s. 813.12 of the Wisconsin statutes for a domestic abuse injunction or under s. 813.125 of the Wisconsin statutes for a harassment injunction.

Important Reminders for Victims of Crime

- Our agency may share your name and phone number, this report number, crime alleged, and a brief summary of this incident with the victim services agencies listed above. If you wish to decline these victim services and the benefits they may provide to you, please notify the investigating officer at this time. You may also decline services by contacting the investigating agency at the phone number listed, or the Winnebago County Victim Witness Assistance (WCVWA) at any time.
- If the District Attorney's Office issues charges in this case you will have the right to attend all court proceedings and, upon request, to be heard in court when your rights as a victim are implicated. Contact the Victim Witness Program for information about your rights and about charges, the next court hearing and to provide your input regarding potential protective bail conditions that may be ordered by the court.
By Phone: 920-236-4977 By Email: kayla.hansen@da.wi.gov
- If you are threatened or intimidated by anyone because of your cooperation with law enforcement and prosecution in connection with this crime, you should report that to the investigating agency. If you feel you are in immediate danger, call 9-1-1.
- It is very important that you keep agencies informed of any changes to your address, phone number, or email.
- You may be eligible to receive reimbursement for certain expenses related to the crime. It may be helpful to you to keep records of the crime-related expenses such as lost wages, repairs or medical bills because you may be required to provide this information to support your claim. Restitution may be ordered if someone is convicted of the crime against you, or you may be eligible for crime victim compensation even if no one is arrested or convicted. For more information contact the Wisconsin Department of Justice at 1-800-446-6564 or P.O. Box 7951, Madison, WI 53707-7951 or online at: www.doj.state.wi.us/ocvs.
- WI-VINE services allow you to register for notification about changes in custody status for offenders who are in a county jail. Find more information at www.vinelink.com or call 1-888-944-8463.
