Menasha Police Appoint New Deputy Chief

7/23/2020

On 7/21/2020 during the City of Menasha council meeting Chief Timothy Styka led a short ceremony swearing in Deputy Chief Angela Hanchek as the department's new second in command. Hanchek has served with the department for 19 years and acted in many roles including field trainer, officer in charge, sensitive crime investigator, crisis intervention team, and patrol lieutenant. She currently maintains the departments accreditation status through the Wisconsin Law Enforcement Accreditation Group.

Chief Styka said, "Angie is one of those that has the utmost respect from our employees, and I think that she'll really be the one to help us make our employees feel wanted and loved and keep a long career here." City Clerk Haley Krautkramer led Officer Hanchek in swearing her oath of office followed by her family pinning the traditional single star on each shirt collar. Deputy Chief Hanchek accepted her appointment saying, "we have a great department with great people." She is looking forward to the opportunity to work in her new role in the department as well as interacting with the community.
