Savor Milwaukee at it's best!

Milwaukee, rich in attractions, makes it the perfect place to visit. Usinger's Sausage and the Pabst Brewery, and add in the infamous Ikea store and Applebees for a bite, makes for a great day away.

Thursday, February 22, 2024

- Off to Milwaukee for an hour-plus stop at Ikea, a popular one-level Scandinavian style store where you can find ready-to-assemble furnishings for every room. Helpful staff can answer questions and guide you to specific items. Stop in the Bistro for a light snack.
- Applebee's in Oak Creek will be our lunch stop, the world's largest casual dining chain in America. It's an American-born company that started in Atlanta in 1980 and has grown to over 1,500 Neighbor Bar and Grills worldwide. With a focus on casual dining, they serve mainstream dishes such as salads, chicken, pasta, burgers, and riblets (one of their signature dishes). We will give you $10 toward your lunch!
- Next stop, Usinger's Sausage (opened in 1880) which produces quality sausage products. The store still has all its original trimmings and architecture which is a must see. The gift shop has products packaged so neatly that are ready to be purchased. Bob Uecker, famous broadcaster for the Milwaukee Brewers, says Usinger hot dogs are his favorite hot dog!
- We will have an hour-plus tour along with a taste of Pabst beer, Schlitz beer, or Sprecher soda. Relive the colorful history of Pabst beer, founded in 1874. Learn how the Best and Pabst families grew the brewery business to become America's largest brewery."

- Cost: $65, $20 nonrefundable down payment due upon registration.
- Final payment is due February 1, 2024.
