

What Conditions Affect VA Compensation Pay?

1. Compensation pay is subject to future adjustment (increase or decrease) upon receipt of evidence showing any change in the degree of disability.

2. Compensation pay may also be affected by and of the following circumstances which you must promptly notify the VA.
 - a. Reentrance into active military or naval service.

 - b. Receipt of armed forces service retirement pay, unless your retirement has been reduced because of award of disability compensation.

 - c. Receipt of benefits from the Office of Federal Employees Compensation.

 - d. Receipt of active duty or drill pay as a reservist or member of the Federally recognized National Guard.

3. If you have a disability rating of 30% or more, you must promptly advise the VA of any change in the status of your dependents.

4. Benefits will be reduced upon incarceration in a federal, State or local penal institution in excess of 60 days for conviction of a felony. The amount not payable may be apportioned to a spouse, dependent children or parents.

NOTE: Please notify the VA immediately if there is a change in any condition affecting your right to continued payments. Failure to notify the VA of these changes may result in a debt that you will have to repay.
