

Welcome to the Colfax County Sheriff's Office online crime reporting portal. If you have been a victim of certain crimes and the details of your event meet certain criteria, this portal will allow you to self-report the incident. Not all crimes are able to be reported online. To use this system, the following must apply:

The crime must have occurred inside the County of Colfax

You must be 18 years of age or older.

No one was injured, and NO weapons were involved.

Crimes with victims deemed as crimes against the elderly (age 70 or higher) or a crime against an At-Risk person may not be reported online.

If you have met the above criteria, below is a list of crimes that you may report online. Please read the series of questions below to help you determine if your incident qualifies for online reporting.

Is this an emergency?

If Yes, STOP and call 911 immediately.

If No, continue to the next question.

Is the event currently happening (in-progress)?

If Yes, STOP and call 911 immediately

If No, continue to the next question.

Was your event a violent crime against you or another? (Assault, Robbery, Kidnapping, Sexual Assault, Domestic Violence, etc.)

If Yes, and the event is not in-progress, STOP and call 575 445-2704 to report your event. If the event is in progress call 911 immediately.

If No, continue to next question.

Do you have viable suspect information? (You can clearly identify the person or persons who committed the criminal act.)

If Yes, and the event is not in-progress, STOP and call 575 445-2704 to report your event. If the event is in progress call 911 immediately.

This is not the official copy of the report. Once submitted your report will be reviewed. One of the following will occur:

- Your report will be approved and a permanent case number will be assigned.
- You will be asked by email or phone to provide additional information before the report can be processed.
- Your report will be forwarded to an investigator for additional follow-up before approval.
- Your report will be rejected by email as ineligible for online reporting. You will be requested to contact us to request a Deputy to respond.

It is important to note that reports requiring additional information or referred to a Deputy may take longer than 72 hours to approve.
