City Administrators Report
Caucus Meeting
Monday, September 11, 2023

Report Talking Points:

Storm Sewer Water Project (Crescent Avenue, Park Street, and Croley):

- Possibly starting this week.

Opioid Settlement Fund Meeting Update:

- Attended this meeting on Tuesday, August 29th at the Kenton County Government Center.
- Amanda Peters the Director for the NKY Office of Drug Control Policy spoke/presented at the meeting.
- Idea is to allocate the funds that we have received to the Kenton County Fiscal Court.
- Fact: Our funds do not expire.
- Fact: They can build up over time making them more meaningful and impactful when they transfer.

Tunnel to Towers 5K Event:

- When: Sat, September 16th, 8am – 10am
- Where: Lou Hartfiel Memorial Park, 800 Buttermilk Pike
- Description: Street closures will be in effect from 8:00 - 10:00, or until the last runner/walker returns.
- Street closures: The race route travels down Collins Road, west onto Amsterdam Road to River Ridge Elementary and back. Officers will be posted at intersections to facilitate vehicular traffic across the race route when safe and necessary.
- The Park will close to traffic on Friday, September 15th at 8am. The Park will remain open to foot traffic.

Take care,
