Amendment of 2009 Crooks zoning ordinance. Richardson explained the proposed amendment to the 2009 Crooks zoning ordinance was to establish a zoning classification for a planned unit development district ("PUD"). A planned unit district zoning classification permits for leeway in zoning to permit the development and growth of a district that involve numerous zoning matters for which traditional zoning classifications are inadequate though. Gary Jongewaard (resident) asked about the approval process of the PUD. Richardson stated every PUD will have to be approved by the planning and zoning commission and any changes to a PUD will have to be reapproved by the commission, except minute changes. Richardson stated PUDs are not a free-for-all for zoning but have strict guidelines. Motion by Atwood to recommend adoption of amendment for PUD to 2009 Crooks zoning ordinance, seconded by Krcil. Richardson then invited public to provide comment. No further comment from the public. Richardson then closed floor. No further discussion. All aye, motion carries.
