ASSOCIATE JUDGE AWARDED THE DCBA'S RALPH A. GABRIC AWARD FOR PROFESSIONALISM

Chief Judge Kenneth L. Popejoy is pleased to announce that Associate Judge Paul Marchese has received the DuPage County Bar Association's Ralph A. Gabric Award for Professionalism, one of the highest honors that can be awarded to a lawyer or judge by the bar association.

First conferred in 1997, the award is presented to that member of the DCBA whose personality, leadership, and professionalism have significantly enhanced the organization as exemplified by the characteristics of Ralph A. Gabric, President of the DCBA from 1981 to 1982, who also later served as President of the Illinois State Bar Association.

Judge Marchese has been an Associate Judge since 2009 and currently presides over the Mental Illness Court Alternative Program (MICAP), Veterans Court Program, and a general misdemeanor call.
