Presentation/Discussion: Headlee Override/Special Election

City Manager, Cameron Horvath gave a presentation of what Headlee is, how it affects taxes, what proposal A is and how the two work together to keep property taxes from increasing more than the rate of inflation. The City Manager also prepared a flyer that explained this information and gave a sample of expected increase to summer tax if the proposal should pass at the special election to be held on November 7, 2023. Steve Frank, City Bond Attorney with Miller, Canfield was present to answer any questions that the council or residents had. There were several questions asked by the 8 audience members that attended the meeting. After the presentation, the meeting was turned into a town-hall type meeting with people coming and going the rest of the evening.

Mayor Brands adjourned the meeting at 7:00 p.m.
