

Local Spay/Neuter Resources

Eagle Valley Humane Society

50 Chambers Ave Eagle, CO 81631
970-328-7387

Eagle Valley Humane Society has a Family Pet Assistance Program that provides free spay and neuter services to people who cannot afford to get their pet altered.

Journey Home Animal Care Center

1500 Prefontaine Ave Rifle, CO 81650
970-625-8808

Journey Home provides a variety of services including examinations, spay/neuter, vaccinations, surgeries, and more!

Animal Birth Control

502 28 1/2 Road Grand Junction, CO 81501
970-523-5487

ABC offers low cost spay/neuter and vaccination services

Denver Dumb Friends League

4817 National Western Dr. Denver, CO 80216
303-722-5800

The Dumb Friends League offers affordable spay/neuter services to all owned, pet cats and feral/community cats.

Top reasons to spay/neuter your pet:

- Prevents male dogs from developing prostate problems or testicular cancer.
- Neutered dogs are less likely to urinate (mark) in the house.
- Altered dogs have fewer behavior issues.
- Spaying reduces the risk of a female dog or cat suffering from mammary tumors and uterine cancer.
- Altered cats are less likely to spray.
- Spaying and neutering saves lives by preventing unwanted litters and homeless animals.

Save Lives.
Spay and Neuter.