

Career Opportunities (current job postings) & FAQs (below)

Career Opportunities - VIDEO

The Eagle County Sheriff's Office invites you to learn more about joining our professional and committed law enforcement team. The Eagle County Sheriff's Office is located in the heart of the Vail Valley and serves beautiful mountainous communities. This career offers competitive pay, benefits, a career advancement program and overtime opportunities.

Patrol Deputies work 11.50 hour shifts rotating every 8 weeks from days to nights.

Detention Deputies work 12 hour shifts rotating every 13 weeks.

This guarantees that you will have every other weekend off to enjoy the beautiful community you serve.

THANK YOU for your interest in joining our team. If you are interested in joining our team please visit the Eagle County Government 'JOBS' page to complete an employment application. For questions, please call our main number at 970-328-8500 and press option #2 to be connected to our main office.

Patrol Deputy PS1-Salary Range: $28.50 - $39.30 Hourly (Updated 1/1/2020)

Detention Deputy PS1-Salary Range: $28.50 - $39.30 Hourly (Updated 1/1/2020)

The hiring range for this position is $28.50/hr to $30.50/hr. The maximum of the pay range is $39.30/hr. A hire rate over the hiring range may be considered based on the candidate's qualifications and experience. Entry level pay is $27.50/hr with advancement to $30.00/hr following successful completion of the Field Training Program.

For all job openings at Eagle County Government and for complete job descriptions check out the Eagle County Human Resources page.

FAQs

How do I become a sheriff's deputy?

Becoming a sheriff's deputy requires Peace Officer Standards and Training by the State of Colorado as a peace officer.

- For more information, please refer to the Colorado Peace Officer Standards and Training Board \(P.O.S.T\) website.
- Candidates interested in working for the sheriff's office must complete extensive testing and a background investigation through the sheriff's office.
- Colorado Law Enforcement Training Academy (CLETA) at Colorado Mountain College in Glenwood Springs, CO. Information can be found HERE
- Other Colorado POST-Approved Basic Academies can be found HERE

How often does the Eagle County Sheriff's Office test?

The sheriff's office maintains an eligibility roster at all times. Testing is scheduled based on need. All testing notifications are posted on the Eagle County Sheriff's Office webpage or announced to interested applicants.