

Touring Edgecombe – Seeing What You’ve Been Missing

Keihin Auditorium

Did you know that Edgecombe Community College has a state of the art performance auditorium that will seat over 1,000 people? Did you know that stars like Taylor Swift, BB King, Percy Sledge, and Mickey Rooney have performed on that stage? Well then you need to know more about Keihin Auditorium.

Since its opening in 2004, the Keihin Auditorium has brought entertainment and culture to Edgecombe County. It has a 70 ft wide stage and flown acoustic panels for optimum sound no matter where you sit. Its high-tech lighting system makes for the perfect viewing experience at any concert or show. It is also fully handicap accessible and ready to accommodate every patron. The 2013-2014 Series is currently underway, and there are performances you don't want to miss. Season Nine includes country singer Easton Corbin (Nov 16th), NC Symphony Holiday Pops (Dec 11th), and the New York Theater Ballet (Apr 9th).

If you have never been to a performance, then you should see what you've been missing. For more information, visit their website at www.edgecombe.edu.
