The physician conducting the exam will be provided with a description of the essential duties and responsibilities, physical requirement and working condition and other pertinent information on the position to aid in the determination of the ability to perform the job in question.

If the County determines that pre-employment medical exams will be required, they will be required of all candidates who are conditionally offered employment for a given job class. The information obtained during the medical exam will be treated as confidential medical records.

The exam will be conducted by a licensed physician designated by the County and the cost of the exam will be paid by the County. The physician will notify the County Manager whether a candidate is medically able to perform the essential functions of the job, with or without accommodations. If the candidate requires accommodation to perform one or more of the essential functions of the job, the County Manager will confer with the physician and candidate regarding acceptable accommodations.

The County will inform the candidates of the results of their examinations. If a candidate is rejected for employment based on the results, the candidate will be notified of this determination and may request further explanation from the physician.

Section 15. Probationary Period

The County regards the Probationary Period as an integral part of the employment process. During this period new employees are closely evaluated to determine whether or not they meet acceptable standards of performance. This period is one of the most effective tests available to measure fitness for the job.

Edgecombe County requires all employees to serve a probationary period when a new employee is appointed to a position and when existing employees are promoted, transferred, or demoted. The probationary period is regarded as an extension of the selection process. It provides the County with a period of time during which the employee's work will be closely evaluated. The County may dismiss any employee with or without cause at any time during the probationary period.

The probationary period for newly hired or re-hired employees is nine (9) months from the date of hire, with the exception of County Department Heads and sworn law enforcement personnel of the Sheriff's Department who shall serve a probationary period of one (1) year from the employee's date of hire. During the probationary period the County shall closely observe an employee's work to ensure that the employee demonstrates that he/she is qualified for the position to which he/she has been appointed. Performance, skills and ability demonstrated during the Probationary Period shall be evaluated by the employee's supervisor in order to determine whether the employee should continue to be retained by the County. If the employee's work meets established standards, he/she will become a regular employee at the end of the Probationary Period. Employees whose performance does not meet the work standards of the position, as determined at the sole discretion of the County, may be terminated without stating a reason or cause, or in accordance with law. An employee terminated during the probationary period will not have the right to appeal. The supervisor shall recommend in writing whether the probationary period should be completed or extended, or if the employee should be transferred, demoted or dismissed. A Department Head may extend the probationary period for up to an additional three (3) months with the approval of the County Manager when needed to properly evaluate the performance of a probationary employee. In such cases, the employee must be notified of the purpose of the extension, the conditions and performance expectations, and the length of time of the extension. Probationary periods may also be extended by absences from work, such as a Family Medical Leave. Under no circumstances will the probationary period be shortened.

Employees appointed to a new position in the County shall serve a nine (9) months Probationary Period. If an employee appointed to a new position is found to be unsuited for that position, the County at its sole discretion, may reinstate the employee to his/her former position and former rate of pay if the County determines that such reinstatement is possible. Reinstatement is not guaranteed.

Prior to the completion of the probationary period, the employee's supervisor and/or the Department Head must review the performance of the probationary employee and provide the County Manager with a written recommendation to retain or dismiss the employee.

Employees who are initially employed at a salary less than minimum for their class may receive an increase to the minimum of that class at the completion of the probationary period.

Section 16. Completion of the Probationary Period

A performance evaluation will be completed and reviewed with the employee before the end of the probationary period. The Department Head will then notify the County Manager as to whether the employee's performance has been satisfactory or not, and whether the employment relationship should be continued.

In the case of Department Heads, the County Manager will evaluate the employee and determine whether or not to upgrade the employee's status to that of a regular employee.

If the notification indicates the employee has successfully completed the probationary period, the employee will become a regular employee within the meaning of this policy, serving at the will of the Board of County Commissioners. The employee's length of service will be computed from his/her date of hire.

Section 17. Changes in Employment Status

Reclassification

A recommendation for an individual to receive a reclassification will be made on the basis of job content, resulting from significant changes in the kind, difficulty, or responsibility of the work performed in the position. A reclassification may warrant an increase or decrease in points and/or salary range. On the Department Head's recommendation, the County Manager may recommend reclassification of a position.

Demotion

Employees may be demoted if they have been found unsuited for the present position but may be expected to perform satisfactorily in a lesser position. Employees may also be demoted if their position(s) has been abolished or reclassified to a lower class and they cannot be transferred to a position of equal pay for which they are qualified and suited.

Employees who are demoted due to reclassification, restructuring or other organizational change unrelated to performance, shall not normally suffer a pay cut. In this case, if an employee's pay was above the range (salary grade maximum) for the new position, his/her pay will be frozen until such time as annual adjustments increase the salary range above the employees' salary.

If the demotion was disciplinary and/or due to performance problems, the salary will be readjusted based on the established salary grade of the new position.

Demoted employees may appeal the decision in accordance with the Grievance Process outlined in Article XII.

Transfer

The County may initiate or approve employee transfers from one location to another or one position to another with the same or comparable level of job duties and responsibilities and the same salary range.

The County may require employees to make either a temporary or long-term job transfer in order to accommodate business or operational needs. Employees interested in transfer must meet the requirements of the new position, must have been employed in their current position for a minimum of six (6) months, and must meet the established standards of the position, these requirements may be waived upon approval of the County Manager.

Opportunities for position transfer will be posted internally for five (5) days. Employees interested in a position transfer must complete an Application for Employment prior to the posting deadline.

Transfers may be initiated by the County or an employee due to organizational or operational needs including but not limited to: temporary workload imbalances, County restructuring, dislocations cause by position elimination or reduction in force, a desire for new or broader experience, better utilization of skills, or accommodations for disabilities or medical reasons

Promotion

Employees may apply for appointment to a position requiring higher qualifications such as greater skill or more experience and involving a higher level of responsibility, a higher rate of pay, and a title change which is considered a promotion and will be classified as such in all personnel documents. Promotions will be made without regard to the race, color, sex, religion, age, ethnic origin, or disability of the employee.

Employees who desire to apply for a particular job must complete an Application for Employment prior to the posting deadline. Additionally, supervisors and Department Heads can recommend employees as candidates for promotion.

Qualified candidates will be interviewed by the head of the department in which the job opening occurs. Employees applying or being considered for promotion will be allowed time off with pay for job interviews related to promotion.

The head of the employing department is responsible for select the most qualified applicant for the position. In evaluating current employees for promotion, the following factors will be considered:

- a. Job relevant qualifications
- b. Performance evaluations
- c. Letters of recommendation from former supervisors

Section 18. Appointments of Department Directors and Managers

The County Manager shall make all appointments of department directors or managers under his or her direction, except those elected or appointed by the Board of County Commissioners or other boards established by General Statute.

Section 19. Interim Appointment

The County Manager may designate a County employee to serve in an acting capacity when a Department Head or supervisory position is vacant due to a resignation or due to an approved leave of absence of more than four weeks, or as deemed appropriate. Employees serving in an acting capacity may be compensated to reflect the increased duties they have assumed until an appointment to the position has been made, a leave of absence has been completed, duties are reassigned, or another personnel action is taken which no longer requires an employee to serve in an acting capacity.

Section 20. Work Schedules

The County Manager shall establish standard hours of operation for County departments to provide for the efficient conduct of County business. The County Manager shall make adjustments to the standard hours of operation and department work schedules, as needed, to meet service and operational needs. No County office shall be closed at any time without the prior knowledge and approval of the County Manager, except in cases of emergency.

The normal workday consists of eight (8) hours. The normal work week for regular full-time employees shall consist of forty (40) hours. Department Heads shall work the number of hours necessary (not less than the established work week) to assure satisfactory performance of their duties.

Work schedules for public safety personnel shall be determined by the County according to the needs of Edgecombe County.

The County Manager may approve modified work schedules for individual or groups of employees, so long as there is no interruption of department or County functions and efficient provision of services.

Section 21. Work Week

All employees whose overtime is governed by the Fair Labor Standards Act (FLSA) shall accrue overtime compensation in accordance with the provisions of the FLSA. The standard workweek shall be from 12:01 AM on Sunday through 12:00 AM on Saturday, unless an alternate schedule has been so designated by the County Manager. Department Heads, supervisors and other exempt employees under the FLSA shall work those hours necessary to ensure satisfactory performance of their departments, but not less than 40 hours per week. Law enforcement personnel shall not exceed 171 hours within a 28-day work period in accordance with the law enforcement exemption set forth in the FLSA.

Section 22. Overtime – Non-Exempt Employees

All employees governed by the FLSA shall maintain true, complete and legible time records. All time worked shall be recorded to the nearest one-quarter hour and shall be submitted to the supervisor in a timely fashion. Supervisors shall arrange the work schedule of their employees to accomplish necessary work within an average workday and workweek, except in those cases where excessive hours of work are necessary.

Non-exempt employees, in all departments, may be required to work overtime as requested by their supervisor. Refusal to work overtime may result in disciplinary action. Supervisors will make reasonable efforts to balance the personal needs of their employees when assigning overtime work

All overtime must be authorized in advance by the employee's supervisor and Department Head, except in emergency situations where conditions are such that prior approval cannot be obtained, and in such event approval shall be obtained immediately subsequent to the emergency overtime worked, except when overtime is mandated by shift scheduling. Excessive, emergency or ongoing overtime must have written approval by the County Manager. An employee who works overtime without approval may be subject to disciplinary action.

The County's overtime policy complies with applicable state and federal laws governing accrual and use of overtime. Only employees to whom the overtime provisions of the State or Federal Fair Labor Standards Act applies are required to be compensated for overtime work. The Human Resources Director determines the FLSA status of a position and whether the position is designated as "exempt" or "non-exempt" from earning overtime. In general, employees in executive, administrative and professional job classes as defined by the federal Fair Labor Standards Act are exempt; all others are non-exempt.

All overtime eligible employees will be compensated at the rate of one and one-half ($1\frac{1}{2}$) times their base hourly rate or will earn compensatory time at the rate of one and one-half ($1\frac{1}{2}$) hours for each hour worked over forty (40) in a workweek. Annual leave, holidays, sick leave or any other paid leave time do not count toward "hours worked" for purposes of overtime. Overtime and compensatory time shall be calculated to the nearest one-quarter ($1/4$) hour. Compensatory time may be accumulated to a maximum of eighty (80) hours, unless approved by the County Manager. Employees may request and use compensatory time off in the same manner as other leave requests. Compensatory time shall be exhausted prior to the approval of sick leave, vacation leave, or leave without pay. All compensatory time shall be marked as such on official timesheets, both when it is earned and when it is taken. Each Department shall maintain compensatory time records. All compensatory time accrued will be paid when the employee leaves County employment at the rate the employee is earning at that time.

Law Enforcement personnel will be scheduled on a twenty-eight (28) day work period and will be compensated at the rate of one and one-half ($1\frac{1}{2}$) times their base hourly rate or will earn compensatory time at the rate of one and one-half ($1\frac{1}{2}$) hours for each hour worked over one hundred seventy-one (171) hours in a twenty-eight (28) day work period. Law Enforcement personnel shall earn hour for hour compensatory time for all hours worked in excess of the scheduled shift in a work day, when the work does not result in hours worked in excess of one hundred seventy-one (171) hours in a twenty-eight (28) day work period. Compensatory time may be accumulated to a maximum of eighty (80) hours. The County will not be liable for overtime pay which is a result of voluntary shift switching among deputies.

The County Manager may change the work schedules of County employees as needed.

Section 23. Overtime-Exempt Employees

Exempt employees are exempt from the overtime requirements of the federal Fair Labor Standards Act and are expected to work whatever hours are necessary in order to meet the performance expectations outlined by their supervisors or the County Manager. In addition, exempt employees are normally ineligible to receive compensatory time off for working additional hours over and above forty (40) hours in a workweek. However, should exempt employees be required to work on a designated holiday or for inordinately long periods outside of the normal business day, the County Manager, at their discretion, may authorize compensatory time.

Section 24. On-Call

The County provides continuous twenty-four hour a day, seven day a week service to its customers. Therefore, it is necessary for certain employees to respond to any reasonable request for duty at any hour of the day or night. A condition of employment with the County is the acceptance of a share of the responsibility for continuous service, in accordance with the nature of each job position. If an employee fails to respond to reasonable calls for emergency service, either special or routine, the employee shall be subject to disciplinary action up to and including termination.

The County provides compensation for employees who are required to be available for after hours on-call coverage. Compensation for time spent while on-call and for time spent when actually called back to work shall be determined according to the following:

On-Call/Stand-by. Non-exempt employees required to be on “stand-by” will be paid eight hours for each week (approximately 128 hours, excluding work time) of stand-by. Stand-by compensation for less than one full week shall be determined by the ratio of .08 of pay per hour of stand-by time. Hours actually worked while on stand-by are calculated beginning when the employee reports to the work site, or if working remotely, when the employee engages in the work-related activity, and are added to the regular total of hours worked for the week. Stand-by time is defined as that time when an employee must remain near an established telephone or otherwise substantially restricted personal activities in order to be ready to respond when called.

The County Manager may approve exceptions to this pay provision for specific classes of jobs when unique demands of the work create recruitment and/or retention problems and affect the County’s ability to be competitive. The Manager will inform the Board of Commissioners and the Human Resources Office will maintain documentation on the justification for the exception and the approved alternate on-call practice. Exceptions will be reviewed annually and a determination made on whether the exception is still required or should be abolished. As jobs and/or the market changes, practices approved as exceptions will be changed as appropriate.

The County Manager or designee must approve on-call standby schedules. The Finance Office shall maintain a list of employees who are approved for on-call compensation arrangements.

Call Back. Non-exempt employees shall receive a minimum of two hour’s pay for being called back to work outside of normal working hours. For time periods above two hours, compensation will be for actual time worked. Should this additional time exceed the standard hours of work for the workweek or pay period, overtime pay rules and regulations shall apply. Call-back provisions do not apply to previously scheduled overtime work.

Section 25. Meal Periods and Rest Breaks

The County recognizes that certain breaks in the daily schedule promote employee health and productivity. Employees may take one fifteen (15) minute break for every four (4) hours worked. These breaks must be arranged so that they do not interfere with County business or continuous service to the public. Full-time employees are provided a one (1) hour unpaid meal break for each full-time shift worked. The meal break is not paid, not included in the computation of overtime, nor included in the computation of a normal work shift or payroll period. In order to provide for continuity in County operations, the timing of all breaks is subject to the approval of the supervisor in charge. Rest periods cannot be used to shorten the workday or be banked from day to day.

Section 26. Pay Days

Employees shall be paid on a monthly basis. The pay period is from Sunday through Saturday 12 a.m. When a payday falls on a holiday, employees shall be paid on the preceding workday. Employees with discrepancies in their pay are to immediately report the discrepancy to their supervisor. All employees are required to receive their pay either by direct deposit or in electronic form.

Section 27. Report of Personnel Changes

The County attempts to maintain complete and accurate personnel information on its employees. Laws regarding data privacy are strictly followed.

- f. Person to contact in case of emergency

Most of the data is private and is not revealed without individual employee's permission.

Section 28. Performance Evaluation

Performance evaluations are an opportunity for employees, supervisors, and the County to assess an individual's job performance and are an essential part of a safe, efficient and productive work environment. The performance evaluation system is designed to:

The performance evaluation will be used for identifying problem areas in an employee's performance, identifying the need for further training and development, establishing goals and as a factor in granting performance pay increases and promotions. The performance evaluation will be in writing and shall be signed by the employee and the supervisor.

In addition to annual performance evaluations, employees will be evaluated at the completion of a Probationary Period or any time the employee's supervisor or Department Head believes it is in the best interest of the employee and/or the County to conduct an evaluation. Employees who have been promoted, demoted, transferred or have otherwise changed employment status during the prior twelve (12) month period and, as a consequence, experience a change in their anniversary date will be evaluated on their new anniversary date.

Performance evaluations are non-grievable personnel actions.

The appropriate supervisor or Department Head shall annually review the performance of the each employee within one (1) week of the employee's anniversary date with the County. This annual review must take place and the documentation received in the County Manager's office. Performance shall also be evaluated at the time of a transfer or promotion so that the entire year's work history is reflected. The supervisor shall ensure that all changes in employee duties are reviewed and incorporated into a current job description. Employees shall receive a copy of the performance evaluation and the performance evaluation shall be placed in the employee's official personnel file in the County Manager's Office or Human Resources Department.

Section 29. Attendance

Every County employee has an important role to play in maintaining a productive workplace. Therefore, it is essential that all employees be regular in their attendance during all scheduled hours of work. Unsatisfactory attendance, including reporting late and leaving early, may be grounds for disciplinary action, up to and including termination.

If an employee must be absent from work for any reason, other than approved time off, the employee must notify his/her immediate supervisor at least thirty (30) minutes prior to the start of his/her normal working hours. If an emergency prevents the employee from notifying his/her supervisor at such time, the employee is expected to call as soon as practicable during the workday.

The County reserves the right to require an employee to provide documentation from the employee's doctor or professional health care provider verifying the illness or injury which results in absence from work.

Section 30. Employment of Relatives

If a decision is not made within 30 calendar days, the County Manager shall make the decision.

Department Heads shall ensure that this policy is enforced when making recommendations for employment, promotions, transfers or demotions. Any concerns or questions regarding an applicant's or an employee's eligibility under this policy shall be directed to the County Manager.

Section 31. Supplemental Employment

The County does not restrict employees from engaging in outside employment. However, the County expects regular, full-time employees to consider the County their primary employment. The County will not change work hours to facilitate the scheduling of any outside employment. All outside employment must be reported in writing and approved by the employees Department Head and/or County Manager. - b. Educational leave enables a regular employee to enroll in a course of study required to maintain current employment status, e.g. licensure or certification requirement, or which addresses training/instruction to upgrade knowledge and skills directly relating to current responsibilities. Educational leave can also allow an employee to pursue a course of study which requires the employee's continued absence from the workplace, e.g. a full semester or quarter, approval or disapproval for such leave shall be made by the County Manager upon the recommendation of the Department Head.
- c. Educational leave with pay.

- i. The Department Head and County Manager must approve all educational leave prior to enrollment in the course.
 - ii. Leave with pay may not exceed actual time for classroom instruction in one course during the semester or quarter of instruction and a reasonable amount of time for travel to and from the institution and the place of employment. The Department Head shall determine what is a “reasonable” amount of travel time, and whether the institution is located within a distance that could be reached in a reasonable amount of time off.
 - iii. A regular employee on such leave shall continue to earn any benefits to which regular employees are entitled.
 - iv. Reasonable efforts must be made by the employee to schedule required courses outside of the normal workday.
 - v. No compensatory time or overtime pay shall be given for coursework undertaken after the normal workday.
- d. Educational reimbursement.
- i. The County may reimburse educational expenses incurred in a course of study in a field which is required to maintain current status, e.g. licensure or certification requirements, or which addresses training or instruction to upgrade knowledge and skills directly relating to current responsibilities. If the county assists with funding an advanced degree, the employee may be required to enter into a contractual agreement ensuring continued employment with the County, the duration of which will be mutually agreed upon by the Department Head and the employee with approval of the County Manager. Any reimbursement by the County is intended to supplement and not take the place of other financial resources. To be eligible for reimbursement the educational institution must be recognized by a nationally accredited body.
 - ii. The Department Head, with the consent of the County Manager, has the authority to approve or disapprove all courses requested for reimbursement based upon documentation and funds in the budget.
 - iii. Upon the successful completion of a County approved course as outlined above, the County may pay the costs of tuition, additional course fees, expenses for books, and other course materials incurred by the employee.
 - iv. The employee must maintain a “C” average in the course, to be eligible to apply for reimbursement.
 - v. Any request for reimbursement of costs must be approved by the Department Head and County Manager, must be in writing, and the approval may be granted in advance of taking class.

e. Certifications

Employees required by the County to obtain job specific certifications may be eligible for a one-time payment as defined under a policy determined by the Department Head and County Manager and filed in the Human Resources Office.

f. Educational incentive

Upon prior approval of the Department Head and the County Manager an employee who successfully completes the requirements for one (1) of the following degrees, during their employment with the County, in a field of education directly related to the employees position with the County, and maintains a “C” average or better and a diploma, will be awarded a one-time payment as follows:

ARTICLE X. GENERAL BENEFITS

Section 1. Benefit Programs

Total compensation at the County consists not only of wages, but also the various benefits programs which are offered. All full-time and part-time employees of the County are eligible for employee benefits as provided for in this Article. Seasonal and temporary employees are eligible only for Workers' Compensation and Social Security benefits. Following are some features of the County's benefits programs.

The terms of coverage of the County's benefits programs are more fully described in summary plan description booklets, which you are provided once you are eligible to participate in these programs. Complete descriptions of the County's benefits programs are in our master insurance contracts or master plan documents with insurance carriers. If information in this manual and the summary plan descriptions contradicts information in these master contracts or master plan documents, the master contracts/documents shall govern all cases.

The County reserves the right to amend or terminate any of its benefits programs or to require or increase employee premium contributions toward any benefits without prior notice at its discretion. This reserved right may be exercised in the absence of financial necessity.

Section 2. Health Insurance

The County may provide health insurance in an amount equal to a single employee's coverage for all regular, trainee and probationary employees and County Commissioners. Such employee, who is working or on paid leave for one-half or more of the regularly scheduled workdays in a month, shall be eligible for group health insurance except as provided by FMLA.

A qualified employee wishing to have additional (group) health insurance coverage in the form of parent/children, employee/spouse or family coverage may do so at his or her own expense and have it payroll deducted. All new employees shall become eligible for hospitalization insurance beginning the month after their first payroll check. An employee on leave of absence without pay, may remain covered under the County's group hospitalization plan, but is responsible for the full payment of insurance premiums and is required to maintain the same level of coverage while on unpaid leave.

Permanent part-time employees who work a minimum of thirty (30) hours per week are eligible for group health insurance coverage. The County shall contribute towards the single coverage on a pro-rated basis.

The County may provide health insurance in an amount equal to a single employee's coverage for employees, who upon retirement provided the employee have thirty (30) years of service with the North Carolina Local Government Employees Retirement system and a minimum of five (5) years of continuous service with Edgecombe County on the date of retirement. Employees who meet these requirements are eligible for continued health and dental coverage, paid by the County until the employee reaches age sixty-five (65) or becomes Medicare eligible, whichever occurs first. Dependents of post-retirement employees enrolled in the County's health insurance program may continue their enrollment upon request and in accordance with the provisions of the insurance contracts at the employee's expense. The premium must be paid monthly, in advance. Any missed payments shall result in cancellation of coverage. This option must be elected without a break in coverage on the County's group health insurance plan. If option is not elected upon the date of retirement, the option will not be available in the future.

The Board of Commissioners may cancel this benefit at any time. Applicable state and federal laws will apply.

Section 3. Other Benefit Programs

The County offers a number of benefits designed to allow employees to meet their own health and welfare needs as well as those of their families. A number of approved payroll deduction plans are also available, which provide the employee with increased available income and an enhanced ability to save for retirement. Each employee is encouraged to make responsible decisions regarding both present needs and future financial stability.

It is in the discretion of the County to determine whether to allow the addition of a benefit or service and to provide for payroll deduction. In determining whether to allow for a payroll deduction, the following factors may be considered in total or combination:

- a. The past performance, financial responsibility and reputation of the organization requesting or receiving such deduction.
- b. Whether or not the administration of the program would prove to be unduly burdensome to the County.
- c. Whether interest is expressed by a sufficient number of employees representative of all the agencies of the County.

The County Manager's Office/Human Resources Office shall maintain a current index and description of all benefits available to employees. Copies shall be provided to all new employees and updates shall be provided annually at the time of benefits enrollment.

Section 4. Law Enforcement Officers Additional Benefits

The County participates by special contribution in the Law Enforcement Officers Supplemental Retirement Income Plan-401(k) and provides for a special separation allowance for law enforcement officers as prescribed by G.S. 128-21 (11b) and 143-166.42.

Section 5. Retirement

All employees who work for the County for more than 1,000 hours annually shall join the North Carolina Local Governmental Employees' Retirement System immediately as a condition of employment. Employees shall contribute, through payroll deduction, six (6) percent of their gross salary to the System. The County contributes an amount determined actuarially. Provisions of this system are outlined in the North Carolina Local Government Employees' Retirement System handbook available from the Human Resources Office.

All eligible employees shall participate in social security coverage as provided by title II of the Federal Social Security Act as amended. All exclusions contemplated by the Act shall be provided to elective governing officials who are not required to devote a major portion of their time to the duties of their office.

There shall be no mandatory retirement age imposed on employees except in positions where a bona fide occupational qualification exists in compliance with the Age Discrimination in Employment Act Amendment, 29 U.S.C. 621-634.

Section 6. Employee Recognition

The Board of Commissioners shall from time to time recognize the achievement, accomplishments and contributions of its employees and commend their activities to the community and organization through its official action (e.g. Employee Service Awards).

Section 7. Continuation of Insurance

Pursuant to applicable state or federal law requirements, employees who terminate employment with the County for any reason other than retirement may be eligible to continue the group insurance program for a period of time. Changes in family status, eligibility for Medicare, or death of a spouse may also warrant continuing coverage. The premiums for this continuation of coverage must be paid by the employee. Contact the Human Resources office for additional information.

Employees on unpaid leave of absence are responsible for the full payment of insurance premiums and are required to maintain the same level of health insurance coverage while on an unpaid leave of absence that was in effect prior to the leave.

Upon proper application and subject to any required premiums, all regular benefit-earning employees may elect to be covered by the County's health insurance plans. Subject to the payment of required premiums, an employee's dependents may also be covered under such plans.

Section 8. Group Life Insurance

The County provides paid life insurance to its full-time and eligible part-time employees. Information regarding this benefit is available from the Human Resources office.

Section 9. Deferred Compensation

Regular full-time and eligible part-time employees may participate, at their option, in the County's Deferred Compensation Program. Each employee participating in the program may contribute a portion of their compensation, at a rate determined in accordance with current Internal Revenue Service regulations. Contributions shall be by payroll deduction.

Section 10. Workers' Compensation

All County employees (full-time, part-time, seasonal and temporary) are covered by the North Carolina Workers' Compensation Act and are required to report all injuries which occur during the course of their employment with the County to their immediate supervisor at the time of the injury to ensure that appropriate action is taken. An employee who is temporarily unable to work due to an injury or illness sustained in the performance of the employee's work with the County may be eligible for Workers' Compensation subject to the provisions of the North Carolina Workers' Compensation Act. The Human Resources Department shall coordinate the filing of Worker's Compensation claims.

When an employee returns to work full time but with medical restrictions, he/she will receive his/her regular salary. If an employee has limited work hours, he or she will receive regular salary for the hours worked and workers' compensation benefits. Such benefits shall equal 2/3 of the difference between the employee's average weekly wage and the wage he or she receives while working limited hours.

If an employee cannot return to work in a modified, restricted or transitional duty status, the employee must immediately provide his/her supervisor written documentation from the authorized treating physician. In such cases, the employee will receive workers' compensation benefits. The amount of workers' compensation benefits is based on the employee's average weekly wage over a period of fifty-two (52) weeks prior to the date of the work-related injury or illness. Benefits equal 2/3 of the employee's average weekly wage up to the maximum allowed under law. The employee may not use sick and vacation time when out of work due to a workers' compensation injury.

Currently, under the Workers' Compensation Act, there is a seven-day waiting period during which no compensation for time lost shall be allowed, except where the injury results in a disability for more than 21 days. If the disability exceeds 21 days, compensation will be allowed from the date of disability.

Section 11. Unemployment Compensation

County employees are covered by unemployment insurance. County employees who are terminated due to a reduction in force or released from County service may apply for benefits through the local Employment Security Commission office which will determine eligibility for benefits.

ARTICLE XI. DISCIPLINARY ACTION

Section 1. Responsibilities

Employees are subject to discipline for cause, up to and including termination from employment, where their acts or omissions adversely affect or may adversely affect their ability to perform their job or have an adverse impact on other employees or the County. The type of discipline imposed will be based upon the nature and severity of the infraction and the conditions surrounding the incident. The County retains the sole discretion to determine what behavior warrants disciplinary action and what type of disciplinary action will be imposed. Disciplinary action may be in one or more of the following forms:

- a. Oral reprimand
- b. Written reprimand
- c. Suspension without pay
- d. Demotion
- e. Termination

It is the policy of the County to administer discipline without discrimination. Disciplinary action shall be for cause. The supervisor or Department Head shall investigate any allegation on which disciplinary action might be based before any disciplinary action is taken.

Department Heads and supervisors are responsible for maintaining the proper conduct and discipline of employees under their supervision. When an employee's performance or conduct is determined by a supervisor or Department Head to be unacceptable, disciplinary action may be taken in a number of ways, depending on the nature of the offense.

Section 2. Just Cause for Disciplinary Action

- a. There are two (2) bases for the discipline or dismissal of employees. These two bases are:

- i. Discipline or dismissal imposed on the basis of unsatisfactory job performance, including grossly inefficient job performance.
- ii. Discipline or dismissal imposed on the basis of unacceptable personal conduct.
- b. Either unsatisfactory or grossly inefficient job performance or unacceptable personal conduct constitutes just cause for discipline or dismissal. The two (2) categories are not mutually exclusive, as certain action by employees may fall into both categories, dependent on the facts of each individual case. No disciplinary action shall be invalid solely because the disciplinary action is incorrectly labeled.
- c. Imposition of discipline shall comply with the procedural requirements of this Article for consistency during the disciplinary process.

Section 3. Dismissal for Unsatisfactory Performance of Duties

- a. Unsatisfactory job performance is work-related performance that fails to satisfactorily meet job requirements as specified in the relevant job description, work plan or as directed by the management of the work unit or department. Unsatisfactory job performance includes but is not limited to:
 - i. Quality of work
 - ii. Quantity of work
 - iii. Work habits
 - iv. Promptness
 - v. Timely performance of work related analysis
 - vi. Failure to follow the County's financial policies and procedures
- b. It is the County's intent to assist and promote improved employee performance, rather than to punish. This policy covers all types of performance-related deficiencies and does not require that successive disciplinary actions all involve the same type of unsatisfactory performance. Disciplinary actions related to personal conduct may be included in the successive system for performance-related dismissal provided that the employee receives at least the number of disciplinary actions, regardless of the basis of the disciplinary actions, required for dismissal on the basis of inadequate performance. Disciplinary actions administered under this Section are intended to bring about a permanent improvement in job performance. Should the required improvement later deteriorate, or other inadequacies occur, the supervisor may deal with the new unsatisfactory performance with further disciplinary action.
- c. Prior to dismissal for a current incident of unsatisfactory job performance, an employee must first receive at least one (1) prior disciplinary action for unsatisfactory performance. The prior disciplinary action must notify the employee that failure to achieve the require performance improvements may result in the employee's dismissal. There is no minimum time requirement between these two (2) notices. Written reprimands must contain performance improvement plans to assist the employee in achieving acceptable job performance.
- d. Prior to the decision to dismiss an employee, the County Manager or designee or Department Head must conduct a pre-disciplinary conference with the employee in accordance with the procedural requirements of this Article.
- e. An employee who is dismissed must receive written notice of the specific reasons for the dismissal as well as notice of any applicable appeal rights.
- f. Time limits for filing a grievance do not start until the employee receives written notice of any applicable appeal rights.

Section 4. Dismissal for Grossly Inefficient Job Performance*

- a. Grossly inefficient job performance occurs in instances in which the employee fails to perform job requirements satisfactorily as specified in the job description, work plans, or as directed by the management of the work unit or the County and that failure results in:

- i. The potential for death or serious harm to a client(s), an employee(s), members of the public or to a person(s) over whom the employee has responsibility;
 - ii. The loss of or damage to any County property or funds that result in a serious impact on the County or work unit, or;
 - iii. Failure of the employee to obtain or maintain legally required certifications, licenses, bonds or other credentials.
 - b. Actions which could rise to the level of grossly inefficient job performance, dependent on the circumstance, include, but are not limited to:
 - i. Inefficiency, negligence or incompetence in the performance of job duties;
 - ii. Careless, negligent or improper use of County property or equipment;
 - iii. Physical or mental incapacity to perform essential job duties with reasonable accommodation;
 - iv. Discourteous treatment of the public or other employees;
 - v. Absence without approved leave;
 - vi. Habitual improper use of leave privileges;
 - vii. Habitual pattern of failure to report for duty at the assigned time and place; and
 - viii. Habitual pattern of failure to follow the County's financial policies and procedures.
 - c. Dismissal on the basis of grossly inefficient job performance is administered in the same manner as for unacceptable personal conduct. Employees may be dismissed on the basis of a current incident of grossly inefficient job performance without any prior disciplinary action.
 - d. Prior to dismissal of a non-probationary employee on the basis of grossly inefficient job performance, there shall be a pre-disciplinary conference between the employee and the Department Head
 - i. Dismissals for grossly inefficient job performance require written notification to the employee. Such notification must include specific reasons for the dismissal and notice of the employee's right of appeal.
 - ii. Time limits for filing a grievance do not start until the employee receives written notice of any applicable appeal rights.
- * Elected officials are exempt from this section

Section 5. Dismissal for Personal Conduct*

Unacceptable personal conduct includes behavior of such a serious nature that the functions and services of the County have been or may be impaired; the safety of persons or property have been or may be threatened; or local, state or federal laws have been or may be violated. Unacceptable personal conduct may be created by intentional or unintentional acts and may be job related or off duty. Employees may be disciplined up to and including termination for unacceptable Personal Conduct.

- a. Unacceptable personal conduct includes, but is not limited to:
 - i. Fraud in securing appointment, including falsification of the employment application or other employment documentation;
 - ii. Conduct or behavior unbecoming a public officer or employee while on duty or off duty;
 - iii. Conviction or plea of "no contest" of a felony or of a misdemeanor which impacts the employees service to the County;
 - iv. Misappropriation of County funds or property; or causing misappropriation of County funds or property;
 - v. Falsification of County records;
 - vi. Reporting to work under the influence of alcohol or illegal drugs or partaking of alcohol or illegal drugs while on duty or while on public property, except that prescribed medication may be taken within the

- limits set by a physician so long as medically necessary and not disruptive to the employee's performance of his or her job duties;
- vii. Willful damage or destruction of County property, or acts that would endanger the lives and property of others;
 - viii. Willful violation of know or written work rules or policies; including financial policies and procedures;

 - x. Insubordination or willful disobedience, or failure to carry out a reasonable order from an authorized supervisor;
 - xi. Absence from work without authorization or after all leave credits and benefits have been exhausted;
 - xii. Failure to pay County taxes, and:
 - xiii. Possession of unauthorized firearms or other lethal weapons on the job.
- b. An employee may be disciplined, up to and including dismissal for reasons of unacceptable personal conduct without prior warning or disciplinary action having been given to the employee. If the offense is of such a grievous nature as determined by the Department Head.
 - c. Prior to dismissal of a non-probationary employee County employee on the basis of unacceptable personal conduct, there shall be a pre-disciplinary conference between the employee and the Department Head.
 - d. Dismissals for unacceptable personal conduct require written notification to the employee. Such notification must include specific reasons for the dismissal and notice of the employee's right of appeal.
 - e. Time limits for filing a grievance do not start until the employee receives written notice of any applicable appeal rights and must be filed within fifteen (15) days.

Elected officials are exempt from this section.*

Section 6. Written Warning

- a. The supervisor shall monitor and promote the satisfactory performance of work assignments and acceptable standards of personal conduct. All types of performance-related job inadequacies may constitute unsatisfactory job performance under this Policy. Unacceptable personal conduct may be work-related or non-work-related conduct and may be intentional or unintentional. When the supervisor determines that disciplinary action is appropriate for unsatisfactory job performance, a written warning is the first type of disciplinary action that an employee must receive. The supervisor may elect to issue a written warning for grossly inefficient job performance or unacceptable personal conduct. Written warnings will be place in the employee's official personnel file. The written warning must:
 - i. Inform the employee that the document is a written warning;
 - ii. Identify the specific issues that are the basis for the written warning;
 - iii. Inform the employee of the specific improvements or changes in behavior which are expected from the employee to correct the problem;
 - iv. Identify the time frame allowed for improvement or correction of the problem. If not explicitly identified, sixty (60) days will be the maximum time for improvement of correction of unsatisfactory job performance. Personal conduct or gross inefficiency will require immediate corrective action, and;
 - v. Identify the specific consequences for the failure of the employee to take appropriate corrective action within the specified time frame.
- b. A written warning must be issued in accordance with the procedural requirements contained in this Article.
- c. Second written warning shall include a statement, "that failure to make the required improvements may result in further disciplinary action, up to and including termination."

Section 7. Disciplinary Suspension Without Pay

An employee may be suspended without pay for disciplinary purposes for unsatisfactory job performance after the receipt of a least one prior disciplinary action or for causes relating to any form of unacceptable personal conduct or grossly inefficient job performance. The length of a disciplinary suspension without pay for an employee who is subject to the overtime compensation provisions of the federal Fair Labor Standards Act must be for at least one (1) full work day, but not more than two (2) full work weeks. The length of a disciplinary suspension without pay for an employee who is exempt from the overtime compensation provisions of the federal Fair Labor Standards Act must be for at least one (1) full work week, but not more than two (2) full work weeks. Prior to placing any employee on disciplinary suspension without pay, the Department Head shall conduct a pre-disciplinary conference with the employee in accordance with the procedural requirements of this Article and the following:

- a. Identify behavior necessary for employee to correct the problem.
- b. Identify the time frame for improvement or correction of the problem. If not explicitly identified, sixty (60) days will be the maximum time for improvement or correction of unsatisfactory job performance. Personal conduct or gross inefficiency will require immediate correction action.
- c. Identify the specific consequences for the failure of the employee to take appropriate corrective action within the specified time frame.

An employee who has been suspended without pay must be furnished a statement in writing setting forth the specific acts or omissions that are the reasons for the suspension and the employee's appeal rights.

Section 8. Demotion

The Department Head has the discretion, upon review and in consultation with the County Manger, to retain an employee in a lesser capacity when the employee's performance or conduct is sufficient to satisfy grounds for dismissal but the employee shows promise of acceptable performance or conduct in a lesser position. The Department Head may reduce the salary of the employee. Employee must have received at least one prior disciplinary action.

- a. Any employee may be demoted as a disciplinary measure. Demotion may be made on the basis of either unsatisfactory or grossly inefficient job performance or unacceptable personal conduct.
- b. Unsatisfactory Job Performance. An employee may be demoted for unsatisfactory job performance after the employee has received at least one prior disciplinary action and has been given the opportunity to improve through training as arranged by the immediate supervisor, but fails to improve.
- c. Grossly Inefficient Job Performance. An employee may be demoted for grossly inefficient job performance without any prior disciplinary action.
- d. Personal Conduct. An employee may be demoted for unacceptable personal conduct without any prior disciplinary action.
- e. An employee who is demoted must receive written notice of the specific reasons for the demotion, as well as notice of any applicable appeal rights.
- f. Disciplinary demotions may be accomplished in two ways:
 - The employee may be demoted to a lower pay grade with a reduction in salary rate as long as the new salary rate does not exceed the maximum of the salary range for the new lower pay grade.
 - The employee may be demoted to a lower pay grade without a reduction in salary rate as long as the salary rate does not exceed the maximum of the salary range for the new lower pay grade.
- g. Prior to the decision to demote an employee for disciplinary reasons, the Department Head must conduct a pre-disciplinary conference with the employee in accordance with the procedural requirements of this Article.

Section 9. Procedural Requirements

Department Heads shall consult with the County Manager regarding matters where suspensions without pay, demotion or dismissals are considered. The following procedural requirements must be followed to issue disciplinary action under this Section:

- a. FACT FINDING – Prior to taking formal disciplinary action, the supervisor shall conduct a fact-finding inquiry to gather any and all relevant details regarding the situation. The supervisor will discuss the facts of the case with the Department Head. The Department Head will review the information and discuss the facts of the case with the County Manager or designee, or the Agency Director for personnel subject to the Edgecombe County Personnel Policy, who will pursue disciplinary action as deemed appropriate based on the information gathered during the investigation and the employee's prior disciplinary record.
- b. WRITTEN WARNING – To issue a written warning to an employee, a supervisor shall document, in writing, the items identified in Section 6, and shall obtain the employee's signature on the document as proof of the employee's receipt of the warning.
- c. DISCIPLINARY SUSPENSION WITHOUT PAY – To place an employee on disciplinary suspension without pay, the Department Head must comply with the following procedural requirements:
 - i. In matters of unsatisfactory job performance, ensure that the employee has received at least one (1) prior disciplinary action. In matters of grossly inefficient job performance or unacceptable person conduct, no prior disciplinary actions are required so an employee may be suspended without pay for a current incident of grossly inefficient job performance or unacceptable person conduct.
 - ii. Schedule and conduct a pre-disciplinary conference.
 - iii. Furnish the employee a statement in writing, setting forth the specific reasons for the suspension.
 - iv. Advise the employee of any applicable appeal rights in the document affecting the suspension. A department shall furnish to an employee, as an attachment to the written documentation of a grievable disciplinary action as defined in the County grievance procedure. An non-probationary employee who has been demoted shall have fifteen (15) calendar days from the date of his/her receipt of written notice of such action to file an appeal with the County grievance procedure.
- d. DEMOTION – To demote an employee, the Department Head must comply with the following procedural requirements:
 - i. In matters of unsatisfactory job performance, ensure that the employee has received at least one prior disciplinary action.
 - ii. In matters of grossly inefficient job performance or unacceptable personal conduct, there is no requirement for previous disciplinary action, so an employee may be demoted for a current incident of grossly inefficient job performance or unacceptable personal conduct without any prior disciplinary action.
 - iii. Give advance written notice of the appropriate pre-disciplinary conference to the employee of the time, location, and the issue for which discipline has been recommended. The amount of advance notice shall be as much as is practical under the circumstances.
 - iv. Give an employee who is demoted written notice of the specific reasons for the demotion;
 - v. Advise the employee of how and to what extent the demotion will affect the employee's wage rate or pay grade.
 - vi. Advise the employee of any applicable appeal rights in the document affecting the demotion. A department shall furnish to an employee, as an attachment to the written documentation of a grievable disciplinary action, a copy of the County grievance procedure. An non-probationary employee who has been demoted shall have fifteen (15) calendar days from the date of his/her receipt of written notice of such action to file an appeal with the County grievance procedure.

- e. DISMISSAL – Before an employee may be dismissed, a department must comply with the following procedural requirements:
- i. The supervisor recommending dismissal shall discuss the recommendation with the Department Head who shall conduct a pre-disciplinary conference with the employee. The person conducting the pre-disciplinary conference must have the authority to decide what, if any, disciplinary action shall be imposed on the employee.
 - ii. The supervisor or designated management representative shall schedule a pre-disciplinary conference with the employee.
 - iii. Advance written notice of the pre-disciplinary conference must be given to the employee of the time, location, and the issue for which dismissal has been recommended. The amount of advance notice shall be as much as is practical under the circumstance.
 - iv. The Department Head shall conduct a pre-disciplinary conference with the employee, limiting attendance to the employee and the person conducting the conference; the employee's supervisory and a representative from the County Manager's office may be present. The purpose of the pre-disciplinary conference is to review the recommendation for dismissal with the employee and to consider information presented by the employee, in order to insure that a dismissal decision is sound and not based on misinformation or mistake. Security personnel may be present when, in the discretion of the person conducting the conference, a reason for security exists. No attorneys representing either side may attend the conference.
 - v. In the conference, management shall give the employee oral or written notice of the recommendation for dismissal, including the specific reasons for the proposed dismissal and a summary of the information supporting that recommendation. The employee shall have an opportunity to respond to the proposed dismissal action and to offer information or arguments in support of the employee's position. Every effort shall be made by management to ensure that the employee has a full opportunity during the conference to present any available information in opposition of the recommendation to dismiss. This opportunity does not include the option to present witnesses.
 - vi. Following the conference, the Department Head shall review and consider the response of the employee and reach a decision on the proposed recommendation. If the decision is to dismiss the employee, a written letter of dismissal containing the specific reasons for the dismissal, the effective date of the dismissal and the employee's appeal rights shall be issued to the employee in person or by certified mail, return receipt requested, to the last known address of the employee. To minimize the risk of dismissal upon erroneous information, and to allow time following the conference for management to review all necessary information, the decision to dismiss should not be communicated to the employee during the conference. Dismissal notice should be made following the conclusion of the pre-disciplinary conference.
 - vii. A department shall furnish to an employee, as an attachment to the written documentation of a grievable disciplinary action, a copy of the County grievance procedure. An employee with regular status who has been demoted shall have fifteen (15) calendar days from the date of his receipt of written notice of such action to file an appeal with the County grievance procedure.
 - viii. Management shall determine the effective date of a dismissal for unsatisfactory job performance. The effective date of the dismissal shall not be earlier than the letter of dismissal nor more than 14 calendar days after the notice of dismissal.

Section 10. Time Limits for Active Warnings/Disciplinary Actions for Progressive Discipline

Any disciplinary action is deemed inactive for the purpose of this Section in the event that:

- a. The manager or supervisor notes in the employee's personnel file that the reason for the disciplinary action has been resolved or corrected; or
- b. 18 months have passed since the warning or disciplinary action, the employee does not have another active warning or disciplinary action which occurred within the last 18 months and the department has not, prior to the expiration of the 18-month period, issued to the employee written notice, including reasons, of the extension of the period.

Section 11. Placement on Investigation

Investigation status is used to temporarily remove an employee from work status. Placement on investigation with or without pay does not constitute a disciplinary action as defined in this Section and is not an action that may be appealed. Management must notify an employee in writing of the reasons for an investigative placement no later than the second scheduled workday after the beginning of the placement. An investigator placement with or without pay may last no longer than 30 calendar days without written notice of extension by the Department Head. When an extension beyond the thirty-day (30) period is required, the Department Head must advise the employee in writing of the extension, the length of the extension, and the specific reasons for the extension. If a department by the end of the 30-day period has taken no action and no further extension has been imposed, the department must either take appropriate disciplinary action on the basis of the findings of the investigation or return the employee to active work status. Under no circumstances is it permissible to use placement on investigation status for the purpose of delaying an administrative decision on an employee's work status pending the resolution of a civil or criminal court matter involving the employee. It is permissible to place an employee on investigation status with pay only under the following circumstances:

- a. To investigate allegations of performance or conduct deficiencies that would constitute just cause for disciplinary action;
- b. To provide time within which to schedule and conduct a pre-disciplinary conference; or
- c. To avoid disruption of the work place or to protect the safety of person or property.

Section 12. Credentials

By statute, and rule, only persons who are duly licensed, registered or certified as required by the relevant provision may perform some duties assigned to positions. All such requirements and restrictions are specified in the statement of essential qualifications or recruitment standards for classifications established by the County Manager's Office or State Personnel Commission or in the position description for the position.

- a. Employees in such classifications are responsible for obtaining and maintaining current, valid credentials as required by law. Failure to obtain or maintain the legally required credentials constitutes a basis for immediate dismissal without prior warning, consistent with dismissal for unacceptable personal conduct or grossly inefficient job performance. An employee who is dismissed for failure to obtain or maintain credentials shall be dismissed under the procedural requirements applicable to dismissals for unacceptable person conduct or grossly inefficient job performance.

This policy applies to all employees who work for the County). Department heads and supervisors should use the supplemental Social Media Management Guidelines for additional guidance in administering the policy.

a. Guidelines

In the rapidly expanding world of electronic communication, social media can mean many things. Social media includes all means of communicating or posting information or content of any sort on the Internet, including to your own or someone else's web log or blog, journal or diary, personal web site, social networking or affinity web site, web bulletin board or a chat room, whether or not associated or affiliated with the County, as well as any other form of electronic communication. The same principles and guidelines found in the County's policies apply to employee's online activities. Employees are solely responsible for what is posted online. Before creating online content, consider some of the risks and rewards that are involved. Keep in mind that any conduct that adversely affects employee job performance, the performance of other County employees or otherwise adversely affects citizens, customers, suppliers, people who work on behalf of the County or the County's legitimate business interests may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination.

b. Know and follow the rules

Carefully read these guidelines, the County's Ethics Policy, the County's Discrimination & Harassment Prevention Policies, and ensures that postings are consistent with these policies. Inappropriate postings that may include discriminatory remarks, harassment, and threats of violence or similar inappropriate or unlawful conduct will not be tolerated and may subject you to disciplinary action up to and including termination.

c. Be respectful

Always be fair and courteous to fellow employees, citizens, customers, supervisors, suppliers or people who work on behalf of the County. If an employee posts complaints or criticism, avoid using statements, photographs, video or audio that reasonably could be viewed as malicious, obscene, threatening or intimidating, that disparage citizens, customers, other employees, supervisors or suppliers, or that might constitute harassment or bullying. Examples of such conduct might include offensive posts meant to intentionally harm someone's reputation or posts that could contribute to a hostile work environment on the basis of race, sex, disability, religion or any other status protected by law or County policy.

d. Be honest and accurate

All information or news posted should be honest and accurate, if there is an error correct it quickly. Be open about any previous posts that have been altered. The Internet archives almost everything; therefore, even deleted postings can be searched. Never post any information or rumors that are known to be false about the County, employees, supervisors, citizens, customers, suppliers, and people working on behalf of the County.

If a blog or post online is related to the work you do or subjects associated with the County, make it clear that you are not speaking on behalf of the County. It is best to include a disclaimer such as "The postings on this site are my own and do not necessarily reflect the views of the County."
- f. Using social media at work
Refrain from using social media while on work time or on equipment provided by the County, unless it is work-related as authorized by your Department Head or supervisor and consistent with County Policy.
