- (b) The same level of education, experience, knowledge, ability, and other qualifications may be required of incumbents; and

6.05.02 All classes involving the same character of work but differing as to level of difficulty and responsibility shall be assembled into a class series.

6.05.03 Compensation or salary shall not be a factor in determining the classification of any position or the standing of any incumbent.

6.05.04 In allocating any position to a class, the specification for the class shall be considered as a whole. Consideration shall be given to the general duties, the specific tasks, the responsibilities, the required and desirable qualifications for such position, and the relationship to other classes. (a) It shall be the duty of responsible administrative officers in the various departments to report to the Secretary any and all organizational changes, which will abolish or effect changes in existing positions or establish new positions. When an appointing authority requests the establishment of any new or additional position of more than 60 days' duration, or a change in allocation of an existing position, a request for such consideration shall be addressed to the Secretary, accompanied by a statement of the duties, responsibilities and qualification requirements of the position. In those instances where gradual shifts in work emphasis or changing work conditions have effected material changes in existing positions, the Secretary shall be notified in writing by the department before the end of the budget year. In those instances, in which the duties of a position are materially changed for other reasons, the Secretary shall be notified immediately and not later than ten (10) days from the date of such change.

(b) ASSIGNMENT. An employee may be assigned to a position, which carries additional salary and limited additional duties and responsibilities and is within the scope of the specification for the class from which assignment is made. If the duties of the position for which an assignment is proposed are beyond the scope of the official specification for the base class, such position must be separately classified and eligibility established by examination. No permanent or vested rights shall be acquired by reason of such assignment, and such assignments shall be subject to review and change by the appointing authority at any time.

6.07 RECORDS

6.07.01 It shall be the duty of the appointing authority to supply to the Secretary, in writing, all necessary information to enable the Civil Service Commission to maintain records as necessary, including any significant change in the duties of the position to another position in the same or to a different class.

6.09.02 Whenever a position is reclassified from one class to a higher class, the incumbent shall not continue in the same position, except temporarily, without gaining eligibility for the new class by examination and receipt of an appointment in accordance with these rules.

6.09.03 Whenever a position is reclassified from one class to a lower class, the regular incumbent may, with the concurrence of the appointing authority and the Commission, elect to take a voluntary reduction to the lower class or, at the employee's option and with the concurrence of the appointing authority and the Commission, may remain in the reclassified position for a temporary period as limited by the Commission (Not to exceed 12 months) only until transfer can be made to another position in the class in which the employee has regular standing.

They shall be designed to qualify and rank applicants in terms of their relative fitness to perform the duties of the class for which the examination was ordered. An examination shall be deemed to be competitive when applicants are tested as to their relative qualifications and abilities, or when a single applicant is scored against a fixed standard.

8.09.01 The qualifying examination process in Ferry County will include a written test, a typing test and a physical test (for Law Enforcement Deputies and Corrections Officers only), according to academy standards and administered by the Ferry County Civil Service Chief Examiner. An applicant who has failed any portion may retake that portion on the next scheduled examination date. The minimum score required and the part of the exam to which it is applicable shall be stated in the examination bulletin or announced at the time of the examination.

8.15.03 Where an applicant fails to meet the minimum requirements for the physical agility portion of the exam, the applicant may continue to take the balance of the exam. 8.17 QUALIFYING GRADE. Where any part or parts of an examination relate to qualifications deemed essential to the proper performance of the duties of the class, the Secretary may determine the minimum qualifying grade for each such part or parts. 8.19 PROMOTIONAL EXAMINATIONS. Vacancies in the higher positions of a class shall be filled by promotion, whenever practicable in the judgment of the Commission. Any protest regarding test failure must be filed in writing within five (5) working days after signing the return receipt. The same time frame for filing applies when making an appeal to the Commission if the protest is denied by the Chief Examiner/Secretary.

8.41.03 (a) limit the number to be further considered or tested to a group of the highest scoring applicants, depending on the number of applicants who meet the minimum requirements for a position:

(b) allow candidates of protected groups which are under-represented in the job classification or department, to continue in the testing process, even if their passing scores on each test are not the highest. This would pertain only to entry-level tests and apply to women, minority or handicapped candidates. Under-representation would be determined in the same manner as under Rule 8.43.02: or

8.41.04 employ all or any of the above options for multi-part examinations in any examination.

8.43.01 RANDOM SAMPLE. The Secretary may provide for a random sample of qualified applicants to be drawn for an entry-level examination by so stating in the Examination Bulletin.

Those qualified applicants whose names are not drawn for the initial group to be examined shall be held on file. Should the initial group examined fail to yield an eligibility list of sufficient size to meet the needs for eligibles for that class, or should the list become exhausted before it expires, a sample from the remaining qualified applicants will again be drawn and the examination process repeated.

8.43.02 AFFIRMATIVE ACTION—ENTRY-LEVEL EXAMINATIONS. In testing for classes where the County's affirmative action goals pursuant to Washington State Employment Security County Metropolitan Statistical Area statistics are not met, a percentage of the total sample to be drawn for the examination will be drawn from the qualified protected group applicants, if any, and such percentage shall correspond to the protected groups' percentage distribution in the labor market area. The total sample shall be completed by drawing from the remaining pool of applicants.

8.43.03 MULTI-PART EXAMINATIONS. The Secretary may limit eligibility in subsequent exam parts to those scoring highest on a preliminary test or series of tests, provided, however, the number of examinees shall be established before administration of preliminary tests.

No person shall receive more than one temporary appointment during a calendar year. All temporary employments in a class shall cease at the earliest possible date and shall not exceed thirty (30) days from date of notice that a CERTIFIED eligible register for such class is available. An extension may be granted by the Secretary upon satisfactory written notice by the Appointing Authority, if such extension will not cause the temporary appointment to exceed the initial 12 [twelve]-month total limitation.

10.14 TWELVE MONTH APPOINTMENT. If, after one year from the date the initial temporary appointment was first made, there are less than three persons on the eligible list for the class, then the appointing authority may fill the position with any person or persons on the eligible list. 11. PROBATION

11.01 PROBATIONARY PERIOD.

11.01.01 After each full-time or part-time permanent appointment from a certified eligible register, the employee appointed shall serve a complete period of probation (see Rule 11.03) before the appointment is deemed complete. The purpose of the probationary period is to provide a trial period during which the department may observe the performance of the probationary employee, conduct initial training as needed, conduct polygraph testing, conduct an additional physical agility test and attend the appropriate Academy, if required by classification, before civil service status is acquired.

11.01.02 If a probationer transfers in the same class from one department to another, the receiving department may, with the approval of the Secretary, require that a complete probationary period be served in that department. If no request is received within ten working days of the transfer, the original probation period will continue.

11.01.03 A regular employee who has been reduced to a lower class in which he has not had regular standing shall have probationary status in the lower class for six [6] months from the date of such reduction.

11.03 LENGTH OF PROBATIONARY PERIOD. The period of probation shall be 365 DAYS following permanent appointment from an eligible register as stipulated in the union contract. Minor absences due to vacations, annual military leave, illnesses, etc. shall not be construed as interrupting the probationary period unless an absence or absences are considered to be excessive to the extent that the Secretary MAY approve a departmental request for an extension of the probationary period.

11.05 INTERRUPTION OF PROBATIONARY PERIOD BY MILITARY SERVICE. A probationer who engages in active military service more than 30 (thirty) days, shall be considered as having an interrupted probationary period. Such employee will continue the probationary period following return from military leave. INTERRUPTION OF PROBATIONARY PERIOD BY MILITARY SERVICE does not include weekend drills or annual training. Generally, this is invoked upon a person being "mobilized/federalized" or "mobilized at the command of the Governor of Washington in the case of National Guard or Command Headquarters in the case of Reserves".

11.07 SERVICE IN ANOTHER CLASS. Service in a class or office other than the one to which an eligible is regularly appointed may be credited toward completion of a probationary period if the Secretary has approved the written statement of the appointing authority to the effect that the probationary period may be properly judged on the basis of service in the other class or office.

11.09 REMOVAL OF PROBATIONER.

11.09.01 Grounds. During the twelve (12) month probation period, the appointing authority, by assigning in writing to the Commission the reasons therefore, may discharge any probationer. Such reasons need not constitute just cause and shall not otherwise be reviewed by the Commission except as provided in Rule 11.01 or .03.

11.09.02 Procedure. The department head must file a prescribed form with the Appointing Authority stating the reasons for the removal prior to the end of the probationary period. Notice must be mailed to or personally served on the employee, and the Civil Service Commission and proof of notice filed with the Appointing Authority.

11.09.03 Rights Retained. A promotional probationer, unless discharged for cause, retains all civil service rights to the position from which appointed. Such rights shall be retained whether promotion is to an entry level or promotional position.

11.11 DEMOTION. A probationer may be demoted for inability to perform satisfactorily the duties of the position to which he/she was appointed, in accordance with Rule 17.03 on demotion, or may be allowed eligibility for another position in the same class, for which he is deemed qualified by the appointing authority, subject to approval by the Commission. A probationer demoted to a class in which he or she has not held regular standing shall start a new period of probation.

11.13 PROTESTS. Any probationer may file a written protest with the Secretary protesting a termination of probationary status or demotion. All protests must be filed within 10 working days of notice of the action taken. The Secretary will give due consideration to and take appropriate action on all protests filed within the 10 working day period. Probationers may appeal a decision of the Secretary to the Commission under Rule 17.

12. SERVICE CREDIT

12.01 Service credit in a class for a regular employee shall be computed to cover all service subsequent to regular appointment in that class and shall be applicable in the department in which employed.

12.03 DETERMINATION.

12.03.01 The determination of a regular employee's earned service credit shall be made on the basis of the available payroll, personnel and other records. If payroll records are not available for any particular period, it shall be presumed and subject to challenge that each regular employee employed during such period, as shown by other records, earned full service credit in the particular class and department in which employed, for the entire length of such period.

12.03.02. Following the requisite probationary period and upon appointment or reappointment, the seniority and service credit of the employee shall begin anew and be computed without benefit or credit of any prior service except service credit may be restored as the Commission may otherwise authorize for the good of the service.

12.04 REQUESTS FOR CONFIRMATION.

12.04.01 REQUESTS. Any regular employee, or an association or union on behalf of such employee, or the head of an employee's department may request a determination of the employee's earned service credit as of a designated date in any specified class and department in which he has served. If the request is made at a reasonable time and interval, and subject to such directives as may be then in effect, the Secretary shall as soon as practicable, but within ten working (10) days after receipt of request, ascertain the requested computation, and shall so notify the requesting employee, association, union or department head in writing.

12.04.02 PROTESTS. If any employee, association, union or department head has cause to object to the computation of the employee's service credit, written protest may be filed with the Secretary setting forth with particularity the reason and basis for his objection. Such protests must be filed within ten working (10) days. The Secretary shall give due consideration to all timely filed protests and take such action as deemed appropriate.

12.05 SERVICE COVERED.

12.05.01 GENERALLY. 12.06.02 ABOLITION OF CLASS. In the event that a regular employee's former class is abolished or changed, all service credit earned in such class prior to its abolition or change and not lost or forfeited shall be credited to another class in the same department which is substantially similar to, and is neither higher nor lower than, the abolished or changed class.

12.06.03 COMBINATION--COMPUTATION. Whenever the service credit of a regular employee earned in two or more classes, or in the same class in different departments, is to be combined under these Rules as hereinafter prescribed the service credit earned and not lost or forfeited in each such class and department shall be computed separately and shall be added together, and the total sum shall represent the employee's service credit for the particular purpose in question.

12.07 PROMOTION--COMPUTATION OF CREDIT. Upon completion of the probationary period for a promotional position, an employee shall receive credit for all service in the promotional class and particular department, which shall be credited to that class and department. A regular employee shall be entitled to retain all service credit earned in any class and department prior to an authorized transfer therefrom, which shall be credited to such former class and department. Service credit earned in the new class or department to which transferred shall be credited to such new class or department, from the effective date of the transfer. If the transfer becomes permanent, the required trial period, if any, shall be credited to the new class or department. Otherwise such trial period as served shall be credited to the former class or department.

12.09 DEMOTION--COMPUTATION OF CREDIT. Upon the involuntary demotion of an employee in accordance with these Rules, all service credit earned in the class and department from which demoted, up to the effective date of the demotion shall be retained by the employee, unless otherwise provided in the demotion order and approved by the Commission. From that time, the employee shall be entitled to such service credit earned in the lower class to which demoted, plus whatever service credit formerly earned in such class and department and not lost or forfeited. Any required trial period, if satisfactorily served, shall be credited to that lower class and department. If not satisfactorily served and demoted again, such trial period as actually served shall be credited to the next lower or other class in which the employee acquires regular standing or, in the event of a layoff, to the class and department from which the employee is laid off.

12.10 VOLUNTARY REDUCTION--COMPUTATION OF CREDIT. Upon the voluntary reduction of a regular employee to a lower class in the same or different department as provided by these Rules, such employee shall retain all earned service credit in the higher class and department from which reduced, prior to such reduction, if not lost or forfeited.

In addition thereto, the employee shall receive all service credit subsequently earned in the new class and the same department. The Appointing Authority will notify the Secretary in writing if a different class is substantially equivalent to the former class.

12.11.02 DISSIMILAR CLASSES. If the position is reallocated to a class, which is not substantially similar, the service credit earned in the former class shall be credited to such former class and department. The Appointing Authority will notify the Secretary in writing if a different class is substantially dissimilar to the former class.

12.12 LAYOFF--COMPUTATION OF CREDIT. No service credit shall accrue or be allowed during the period in which an employee is laid off, but all service credit earned and not lost or forfeited up to the effective date of the layoff shall be retained by the employee.

13. TRANSFER--REDUCTION

13.01 The transfer of an employee shall not constitute a promotion in the service, except as provided in Rule 13.03.04, below.

The Appointing Authority may transfer an employee from one position to another position in the same class within a department without prior approval of the Secretary but must report any such transfer to the Civil Service Commission within ten [10] days of its effective date.

13.03 Transfers may be made upon consent of the Appointing Authority and with the Secretary's approval as follows:

13.03.03 Transfer, in lieu of layoff, may be made with limited standing to a single position in another class in the same or a different department, upon showing that the transferee is capable of satisfactorily performing the duties of the position and that a regular employee or probationer is not displaced. Regular standing in the new class will be attained by the employee only through examination and permanent regular appointment.

13.03.04 Transfer, in lieu of layoff, may be made with limited standing to a single position in another class when such transfer would constitute a promotion or advancement in the service provided a showing is made that the transferee is capable of satisfactorily performing the duties of the position and that a regular employee or probationer is not displaced and when transfer in lieu of layoff under Rule 13.03.03 is not practicable. Regular standing in the new class can be attained by the employee only through examination and permanent regular appointment.

13.03.05 The Secretary may approve a transfer under this Rule 13.03 with the consent of the appointing authority only, upon a showing of circumstances justifying such action.

The Commission's decision shall be deemed permissive and discretionary, and an employee shall have no claim or cause for denial of placement on a reinstatement register.

13.05.06 The Commission may, in its judgment and discretion, provide in the order granting or approving any reduction that the employee shall serve a designated trial period, not to exceed one month's service from the effective date of the reduction, in the position to which reduced for the sole purpose of satisfying the Commission that employee is capable of satisfactorily performing the functions and duties of such position or class. However, the Commission may, by its order for cause, at any time during the running of a prescribed trial period, either extend, shorten, modify or waive in whole or in part the duration or balance of such period.

17.03 DEMOTION--DISCHARGE.

17.03.01 Only the Appointing Authority may discharge an employee or demote an employee to a lower class for cause. An employee so demoted shall lose all rights to the higher class. If the employee has not had previous standing in the lower class, such demotion shall not displace any other regular employee or any probationer.

17.03.02 The Secretary shall be satisfied as to the ability of such demoted employee to perform the duties of the lower class. The demoted employee may be required to actually and serve actively a trial period in the class to which demoted, for such time and upon such terms and conditions as the Appointing Authority may provide in the demotion order, for the sole purpose of determining that he or she is capable of satisfactorily performing the functions and duties of such class. If the Appointing Authority does not list a trial period and nor measurable goals of a trial period in the demotion order, no trial period is necessary.

17.03.03 Upon the satisfactory completion of the prescribed trial period or upon the effective date of the demotion if no such period is required, the demoted employee shall have the status, rank and standing of the lower class to which demoted, and such class and department shall be deemed to be his or her regular class and department for purposes of these Rules until an authorized change is made.

a. Demotion of an employee to a lower class for good cause may only be made by the Appointing Authority.

b. A demoted employee loses all rights to the higher class.

c. Such demotion shall not displace any other regular employee or any probationer. The Secretary shall be satisfied as to the ability of such demoted employee to perform the duties of the lower class and shall require the completion of a probationary period.

This rule, however, shall not be construed to limit the employer at subsequent hearing from presenting a more detailed and complete case, including presentation of witnesses and documents not available at the pre-disciplinary hearing.

18.03.04 Should the appointing authority determine to discipline following the pre-disciplinary procedure, written notice of discipline shall be given to the employee. Such notice shall include the charges against the employee and a general statement of the evidence supporting the charges.

The notice of appeal shall also contain a brief description of the facts giving rise to the appeal and a concise statement of the reason for the appeal. Forms provided by the Commission may be used for such notice but are not required.

19.05 EXHAUSTION OF ADMINISTRATIVE REMEDIES.

19.05.01 The Civil Service Commission may, when not inconsistent with the terms of a collective bargaining agreement, direct the employee to exhaust available administrative procedures regarding a disciplinary matter before hearing the matter.

Such orders may be appealed to the Commission. The Secretary- Chief Examiner may also conduct pre-hearing settlement conferences (in order to encourage resolution of contested matters), issue subpoenas, and note depositions.

19.07.02 The Commission may authorize the Commission Secretary to investigate any reports or appeals relating to the enforcement or application of the Civil Service or those rules which do not involve a disciplinary proceeding. The Secretary shall report the results of the investigation to the Commission in an open meeting. On the basis of such report, the Commission shall either dismiss the report or appeal as being without basis or set the matter for a full hearing.

19.07.03 As an aid to investigations authorized by the Commission, the Secretary- Chief Examiner may subpoena any documents that would be discoverable for purposes of hearing preparation and may take depositions by tape recorder of any person who may have relevant knowledge. Depositions so taken shall be kept as part of the records of the Commission.

19.09 APPEALS--INITIAL REVIEW. The Secretary-Chief Examiner shall review all appeals to determine whether the employee has timely filed an appeal and whether the action appealed is a final action. Upon a determination that the appeal is not timely, the Secretary-Chief Examiner shall issue a written order of dismissal with prejudice, setting forth the basis of the dismissal. In the case of an action that is not final, the appeal shall be stayed until such action becomes final. Such orders may be appealed to the Commission.

19.11 APPEALS--NOTICE OF HEARING. Upon receipt of a notice of appeal, the Secretary shall forward a copy of the notice to other affected parties. As soon as possible thereafter, but in any event within thirty [30] days, a hearing before the Commission shall be held, with each Party to be afforded not fewer than fifteen (15) days notice of such hearing. Subsequent hearings on the same appeal shall have one week's notice unless waived by the parties. All parties may agree to waive the notice provisions and time limits provided by this section.

19.13 APPEALS--AUTHORITY OF COMMISSION. The exercise of jurisdiction by the Commission over a matter does not preclude the party from withdrawing, modifying or otherwise compromising the matter prior to the matter going to hearing. Upon resolution of a matter prior to hearing, any party may request the dismissal of the matter. A "stipulation signed by both parties should be submitted to the Commission prior to such dismissal."

19.15 SERVICE OF PROCESS--PAPERS.

All papers except the original appeal notice shall be served with the original and three copies. Briefs and memoranda must be filed with the Commission at least ten [10] days prior to any hearing involving matters discussed in said brief or memoranda. Documentary evidence is not required to be filed but, rather, may be provided at the hearing.

19.15.05 An appellant or petitioner is responsible for notifying the Commission in writing of any change in mailing or street address and telephone number. Failure to so notify the Commission shall constitute a waiver of service and notice under these rules.

19.19.01 Every subpoena shall identify the Commission and the title of the proceedings, if any, and shall command the person to whom it is directed to attend, at a specified time and place, and give testimony or produce designated books, documents, or things under that person's control.

19.19.02 Upon application of any party or his/her representative, the Secretary shall issue to such party subpoenas requiring the attendance and testimony of witnesses or the production of evidence in such proceeding. The party requesting the subpoena is responsible for having said subpoena properly served. Such requests for subpoenas shall be submitted to the Commission offices at least ten [10] days prior to the hearing.

(1) Quash or modify the subpoena if it is unreasonable or requires evidence not relevant to any matter in issue, or

19.23.02 A witness in any hearing may be examined orally, under oath or affirmation and shall be subject to cross-examination by opposing parties and the Commission.

19.23.03 When objection is made to the admissibility of evidence, such evidence may be received subject to a later ruling. The Commission may exclude inadmissible evidence and may order cumulative evidence discontinued in its discretion, either with or without objection. A party objecting to the introduction or exclusion of evidence shall state the grounds of such objection at the time such evidence is offered or excluded. No such objection shall be deemed waived by further participation in the hearing.

19.23.04 At any hearing before the Commission when documentary exhibits are to be offered into evidence, copies shall be furnished to the opposing party, to each Commission member and to the Secretary-Chief Examiner.

19.23.05 Parties are encouraged to stipulate to the admissibility of documentary exhibits. To further this end, parties will make request of other parties for such stipulation no later than ten [10] days in advance of the hearing, barring unusual circumstances. The party of whom the request is made shall respond no later than five [5] days prior to the hearing.

The employee shall be reinstated from such register and transferred or reduced in grade according to applicable civil service rules.
