

Coping Skills Wheel

Coping Skills are abilities or talents employed to effectively respond to issues that result in disadvantage or adversity and we need them now more than ever.

Print out the template on our website and use a paper clip or clothes pin to have your child make a choice on the Coping Skills Wheel when they need it.

