

Cindy Hill Pearce

Councilmember – Position 2

Cindy Hill Pearce is a native of Hempstead. Cindy doesn't consider herself a politician; however, as a citizen, she cares deeply for her hometown. Cindy oversees construction and ordinance compliance as Chairman of the Architectural Board at Legendary Oaks. She's a member of the local Lions Club, of the Hempstead Commerce and Civic Association and serves on the Hempstead Municipal Court Security Committee.

Cindy is married to Ricky Pearce, and they have two adult daughters, Sarah and Erin. Sarah is the Social Media Editor for The Chron and Erin is currently studying Criminal Justice at Texas State University in San Marcos. Cindy attends and worships at First Baptist Hempstead.

She is honored and humbled to be chosen by the citizens of Hempstead to represent them. Cindy's mission, is to do her best to help make Hempstead a better place to live by making good decisions not only for our city, but for our citizens. She encourages the citizens of Hempstead to attend city council meetings and get involved in their community.

Her Motto: "Let's Move Forward"

Contact Information: cpearce@hempsteadcitytx.gov

