

Chase Murray

Councilmember – Position 5

Chase Murray is a native Texan and proud resident of Hempstead for nearly 30 years. Chase graduated from Hempstead ISD and later attended Blinn College and University of Houston. Both institutions provided Chase with real-world skills which lead to his focus of entrepreneurship. At age 24, Chase started a successful local business, C&C Sports Apparel. He believes his entrepreneurial background plays a key part in making educated decisions for the city which will help how current decisions will affect future outcomes.

Chase and his wife Abby, are proud parents to triplet girls: Cailyn, Cayson, and Caiyd. They will welcome their newest addition, Baby Boy Murray in September.
