

CITY OF ALBION

Proclamation

In Memoriam

Rosalyn Jones

WHEREAS Rosalyn Jones was born in Detroit, Michigan. She attended Cass Technical School and continued her education at Michigan State University in East Lansing earning a bachelor of science in public administration and a master of business administration in marketing; and

WHEREAS Rosalyn Jones was a member of Family Worship Center Church. A bible scholar and teacher, she attended Mt. Hope Bible Training Center and became ordained as a minister on November 16, 2014; and

WHEREAS Rosalyn Jones was a member of Alpha Kappa Sorority and known for connecting people. Her counsel and wisdom were often requested to help diffuse situations and provide fair solutions; and

WHEREAS Rosalyn Jones loved children, was dedicated to religious study, and worshipping God through dance. She was trained in ballet, African, and modern dance and served as a youth mentor/advocate, youth director, and youth pastor at several churches in the Lansing community throughout her lifetime; and

WHEREAS After 35 years of service, Rosalyn Jones retired from the State of Michigan in November 2015, having worked in many capacities. She most recently took pride in being a consultant for the City of Albion where she was instrumental in developing a comprehensive plan and vision for its future; and

WHEREAS On behalf of the citizens of Albion, we express our heartfelt gratitude and appreciation for Rosalyn Jones' invaluable service to the City of Albion and our residents.

NOW THEREFORE, City Manager Sheryl Mitchell, joined by Mayor Garrett Brown, Council Member Maurice Barnes, Council Member Lenn Reid, Council Member Sonya Brown, Council Member Marcola Lawler, Council Member Jeanette Spicer, and Council Member Andrew French, and the Albion Economic Development Corporation, do hereby extend our deepest sympathies and condolences to the family and loved ones of Rosalyn Jones.

Attested to this 30th day of December 2016.
