MAYOR & COUNCIL/MANAGER COMMENTS:

Council Member Badley thanked Ms. Stoia for the voting presentation and would like it posted on the website; reminded people to vote and stated bingo at the American Legion starts at 6 o'clock.

Council Member Barber thanked Stefanie Schneider, Recreation Director for the outdoor movie Hocus Pocus. It was a great family event.

Council Member Winston thanked Mr. Vokes for his caring message; thanked Ms. Stoia for the voting presentation and informed citizens to please vote.

Council Member Shirkey encouraged businesses to register at the Recreation Center for Christmas in the Park and made mention of larger incentives for the winners. He also stated that the City Charter is not online, however, can be purchased at city hall for $7.00.

Mayor Pro-Tem Hayman thanked Ms. Stoia for the voting presentation; mentioned the light at Michigan and Busha is long and she will get her flags to the legion to retire.

Acting City Manager Mike Booth stated UHY are on site to conduct the city audit; the leaf zoning map is on the city website; pickup starts today and continues through December 4th.

Mayor Pyden inquired about the dog park opening on October 31st; stated the movie at the golf course was amazing; Halloween trick or treating time is 5:00 to 8:00 p.m.; events are taking place at the soccer field which will be great for business and it is great the city teamed up with SC4 to create the sporting event facility.

Rene' Stoia, City Clerk

8:35 p.m. on motion, City Council adjourned.
