MAYOR & COUNCIL/MANAGER COMMENTS:

Council Member Wessel thanked Brian Lents and his team for their commitment and hard work to establish a pole barn at the golf course in honor of Charlie Peyerk. Charlie was a great guy and respected by many.

Council Member Winston thanked Deputy Chief Gerrow for the public safety awards presentation prior to the meeting; mentioned school will be ending soon; Summerfest and Hot Wheels Weekend occurring this summer and complimented Pat Shirkey on keeping things together with preparation of Hot Wheels Weekend.

Council Member Barber commented about working in police, fire and emergency services. Said there's a good command staff and credit is passed on to people which helps promote unity. He commented on the award given to Captain Don Paterson; he is a good EMT Paramedic and was instrumental with Chief Konik and Captain Nesbitt on saving his life. Don touched a lot of lives. He was also glad to see County Commissioner Duke Dunn in attendance at the meeting.

Council Member Shirkey greatly appreciates Golf Superintendent Brian Lents for his dedication and hard work. He also mentioned volunteers are needed for Hot Wheels Weekend please reach out to the Recreation Department or contact Office@Shirkeyelectric.com.

Mayor Pro-Tem Hayman praised Deputy Chief Gerrow for a very nice ceremony; Captain Don Paterson has touched her family; Charlie Peyerk is looking down and so proud of Brian Lents; the golf course volunteers are very much appreciated and Little League opening day is Saturday with an 8:30 a.m. parade.

City Manager Randy Fernandez complemented Deputy Chief Gerrow and the department regarding the awards ceremony; thanked Captain Don Paterson for his years of service at the fire department; farmers market every Friday, May through October; Memorial Day parade on May 30th; The Blue Water Region AACA 29th Annual Marysville Car Show celebrating the 101st Anniversary of the Wills Sainte Claire Automobile is on June 12th; Mermaid Park is now open; Ballfield #5 has lights; Marysville Park is hosting girls softball state quarter finals on June 14th and Summerfest weekend is June 16th – 19th.

Mayor Pyden spoke of the 101st Anniversary of the Wills Sainte Claire in conjunction with the 29th Annual Car Show in the park; May 18th is student government day and encouraged council members to participate; inquired on public safety providing quarterly reports to inform residents of activity in the area; residents would like to know how facilities are being used and updated on recreation activities; commission and board meeting minutes received by council and he wished Mike Booth a happy birthday with a cake.
