TENNESSEE ASSOCIATION OF HOUSING AND REDEVELOPMENT AUTHORITIES
2023 FRESHMAN SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION
INFORMATION and INSTRUCTIONS

The Tennessee Association of Housing and Redevelopment Authorities (TAHRA) Scholarship Program offers funds to outstanding students who reside in a public housing authority program (including Section 8 programs) based on academic merit, special talents or accomplishments, and need. Scholarship awards are made without regard to race, creed, religious preferences, sex or any other factor. The TAHRA scholarship program is done in cooperation with the SERC-NAHRO scholarship program.

Factors which are considered in the evaluation of scholarship applications include personal statement, leadership experience, class rank, test scores, grades, extracurricular activities, work experience, awards and recognition and community service.

The scholarship award is $1700 per academic year for full time students and is renewable each semester contingent upon full time enrollment with a minimum GPA of 2.5 on a 4.0 scale.

ELIGIBILITY:

- Resident of a public housing authority or assisted housing for a minimum of twelve months prior to January 1, 2023, and must reside in Public Housing or Section 8 to continue receiving the scholarship.
- High school graduate, GED graduate or expect to graduate by June 2023.
- Any applicant entering college may apply regardless of age.
- Must have a 2.5 or better GPA on 4.0 scale.
- Housing authority must be member in good standing with TAHRA.
- The recipient must be planning to enroll in an accredited college as a first-time freshman in 2023 fall semester. This includes any accredited university, college, community college, vocational, technical, or business school.
- Application must be complete and postmarked by due date of April 1, 2023.

DEADLINE:

Scholarship application deadline is April 1, 2023. All applications must be received or postmarked by that date for consideration. Applications received after that date will not be considered.
