Middlebury Regional EMS COVID-19 Vaccine Clinic!

Middlebury Regional EMS will hold a vaccine clinic on Sunday, May 23, 2021, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. at Porky's Place & Backyard BBQ, 7404 Ethan Allen Highway, New Haven. Please note that the restaurant is closed on Sundays.

The Johnson & Johnson, one and done vaccine, will be offered. Johnson & Johnson vaccines are for people 18 and older. No appointment necessary – just pull in and they'll take care of you! Free! Extra bonus: creemee coupons are available for people who get their shot.

Please call Middlebury Regional EMS at 802-388-3286 with any questions.

Find an EMS Week clinic, walk-ins and other vaccine opportunities near you!

Looking to walk into a vaccine clinic without an appointment? You can! Check out the latest opportunities on our website: healthvermont.gov/MyVaccine and follow our social media feeds @healthvermont to stay up to date.

You can also find links to info on school-based vaccine clinics; clinics for restaurant, hospitality and tourism workers; and a list of EMS Week vaccine clinics coming up this weekend (May 21-23). Bonus: anyone who gets their shot at an EMS clinic this weekend gets a coupon for a free creemee! (Sorry, couldn't resist the second plug for the free creemee with the weather we've been having (88 degrees today!))!
