

WELCOME TO MIDDLEBURY

Our town is special. From the peaceful and energetic waterfall flowing over Otter Creek, to the world renowned Middlebury College nestled between our Green Mountains and the Adirondacks, to the vibrant community of families and friends who call it home... our town is special.

There is much to do, see, and experience. We invite you to take a virtual tour on our website, but we really want you to visit. Come for a day, a weekend, a lifetime... You won't be disappointed. And if you are already part of our community? We hope you discover something new about the special place we call home.

THINGS TO DO

Middlebury has so many things to offer our visitors and families, sometimes its hard to keep track of it all. Here, we try to make it a little easier. If you are looking for a great place to eat, we've got it! Perhaps you want to pick up some local cheese or a special gift... we've got it! A way to investigate an intellectual curiosity or catch the newest movie? We have that too. And don't forget the many quintessential Vermont inns to rest your weary head. With so much to do, it may be hard to choose!
