Subject: Kane County v. United States – Notice of filing Motion for Award of Attorney Fees and Non-Taxable Expenses

The purpose of this email is to give you notice that Class Counsel has, today, filed its “Motion for Award of Attorney Fees and Non-Taxable Expenses” in the United States Court of Federal Claims, in Kane County, Utah v. United States, Nos. 17-739C and 17-1991C (Consolidated).

Copies of that Motion, a supporting Brief, and a supporting Declaration have been posted on Class Counsel’s informational webpage, www.SmithCurrie.com/PiltPaymentsInfo, and are available for your review.

Should you wish to file an objection to that Motion, Class Counsel suggests that you do so no later than October 11, 2018.

What happens next? We are working with government counsel to place before the Court all information needed for entry of final judgment, and expect final judgment to be entered shortly after the Court decides the Motion for Fees and Expenses.

Sincerely,
Alan I. Saltman
Class Counsel
