

Pickens County Accommodations Tax Committee Meeting

Minutes of February 16, 2022 meeting

Main Conference Room, Pickens County Administration Building

In Attendance: Lisa Turnick, Meg Roberson, Russ Gantt, Barbara Shehan

Allison Fowler

The Pickens County Accommodations Tax Committee met on February 16, 2022 to introduce new members and receive an overview of committee expectations for the year. The meeting was run by staff liaison, Allison Fowler.

Committee members introduced themselves and their respective affiliations in the community. Allison Fowler provided contact information for the committee members as well as an overview of Accommodations Tax and the committee's role in the overall process.

Lisa Turnick requested that a copy of the final expenditures from last year be sent to all committee members. Meg Roberson recommended that new committee member's review last year's applications as well to become familiar with the types of requests they will receive. Allison Fowler announced that applications are due on April 29th, 2022.

A meeting was scheduled for May 10th from 3pm to 5pm for the first review of applications.

All applications will be scanned in to the Dropbox folder for committee members to access prior to the May 10th meeting.