

In-person Absentee Voting Cancelled

In-person absentee voting for the June 14, 2022 Primaries, originally scheduled for Monday, May 16th, through Monday, June 13th, has been cancelled due to legislation recently passed by the SC General Assembly and signed by Governor McMaster.

Early voting, open to all qualified electors and requiring no excuse, will commence Tuesday, May 31, 2022.

By-mail absentee requests, which do require a qualifying reason, will proceed as usual.

Additional details will be posted as soon as they are made available. Check our website, <https://PickensElections.org>, for the most up-to-date information.
