Minutes

b) Historic Plaques – Wendy

1. Do we want to nominate structures ourselves? Or ask for the public to make nominations?

Discussion on perhaps starting with the Malek house and Sharland farm, working on possible wording for plaque to come up with anticipated cost.

c) Master Plan Updates-Laura Haw

L. Haw urged members to take the survey currently in the newsletter and on the website. She noted there have been 450 responses thus far and she reviewed some of the responses.

d) Historic Resources Survey – Wendy

1. Where are we with this? Which locations still need to be photographed?

Members volunteered to take photos, where possible, of the remaining locations. Also discussed was the letter presented by Colleen Azimi which will be sent to homeowners asking permission to take photos. It was decided to run it by Supervisor Heise and have it sent on Township letterhead, if possible.

e) Rockwell Sculptures update

W. Harless had a price of $871.50 per marker for a 2' by 3' sign. The Arts Council is not ready to proceed; however, wording could be drafted for a prototype sign to have it ready later should the Township wish to proceed and an alternative way to pay for it arises. C. Souchock suggested a grant program with a 50/50 match, possibly allowing in-kind services.

f) Plymouth Township History factoids for the Township Newsletter—Wendy Suggestions were made for 2021 possibilities and further ideas were encouraged.

g) Jack's subcommittee report/update-Jack Dempsey

J. Dempsey reported on meeting with Richard Sharland, Tom Heathfield and June Kirchgatter regarding the history of their properties, along with agricultural history of the area. Discussions will continue, with an upcoming report in 2021.

h) Review new logo mock ups—Wendy

It was decided to combine the top line of Example 1 with the bottom line of Example 3, and return for review at the February meeting.
