4) BOARD MEMBER COMMENTS

W. Harless suggested December 6th and 14th as possible dates for the Historic District Commission (HDC) to meet. W. Harless will confirm the availability of dates and bring them back at the next meeting.

5) PUBLIC COMMENTS

There were no comments.

6) NEW BUSINESS

a) Introduction of appointed Commissioner -S. Bassett

S. Bassett shared his background including 45 years as an architect, a volunteer at the VA, and an English Language Partner helping people seeking asylum. He studied his own genealogy which led to travel including Salem. His work has contributed to historic preservations.

W. Harless indicated that the HDC is happy to have S. Bassett.

b) Podcast proposal- Ben Eikey

See attached proposal

B. Eikey proposed a podcast focused on Plymouth Township history. There was a discussion on the best method to inform the community of the podcast's existence. The Commission also discussed topics to present. Moved by C. Azimi and supported by S. Hunter to approve the pursuit of creating a podcast presenting Plymouth Township history.

All Ayes

Motion Carried.

The budget for the podcast will include five podcasts not to exceed $1250. Moved by S. Bassett and supported by B. Eikey to approve a budget not to exceed $1250 to produce a podcast with five episodes introducing Plymouth Township history, which aligns with the HCD mission to raise awareness of the Township history.

All Ayes

Motion Carried.

c) 200th Anniversary Celebration - Wendy Harless

W. Harless presented the HDC will spearhead the 200th Plymouth Township Anniversary Celebration. Supervisor Heise's vision is to have several celebrations throughout the Township on different dates. She shared that one of the desired locations to have the 200th Anniversary Celebration will be Tibbitts Barn. The Board of Trustees will conduct a meeting dressed in apparel to match the 1827 era. There was also discussion on a Plymouth Township welcome sign as well as seeking sponsorship from local businesses for goods and services. An example of one of the sponsorships included ice cream. The HDC also discussed marketing plans for the event. The HDC was charged with inviting two or three people that would be interested in the project to attend the June 2023 meeting.

7) OLD BUSINESS

a) Shearer Cemetery - Wendy Harless

We need to set a Spring clean-up date.

1. The clean-up at Shearer Cemetery will take place on May 6th. The high school student will be invited to return as well as other local scouting troops. S. Bassett's son is a native flower specialist and will help to stake the areas that should be avoided to preserve the rare flowers. The ground penetrating radar will be brought back to complete the survey.

b) Triangle Park marker- Wendy Harless

2. Review of the title "A Historic Community with Heart" Let's discuss other ideas for this title-Wendy Harless

W. Harless encouraged everyone to brainstorm to come up with titles for the Triangle Park marker as well as locate photos to be displayed on the double-sided marker. The goal is to represent authentic photos of Native American people as well as maps.

3. Discussion of the latest draft of the text
(see attachment)

- Updates on images to use.

W. Harless shared the photos already collected. She shared that the goal is to finish images and photos soon.

- c) Update on 49000 N. Territorial Rd.

The HDC has researched 49000 N. Territorial Road to link the location to the underground railroad. No documents were found to confirm the underground railroad's history. W. Harless did locate a plat map with history as well.

- d) Any new Plymouth Historic facts for the Township Newsletter?
Cooper Corners

W. Harless shared the history of Cooper Corners to be shared in the new Plymouth newsletter. She encouraged everyone to collect factoids to share in upcoming issues. C. Azimi suggested that the library history would be interesting. She also suggested the possibility of presenting the owners with a plaque as a historic property owners.

8) ADJOURNMENT
