6) NEW BUSINESS

a) Set Goals for 2024

Nominating Plymouth Township for the American World War Heritage City Program was suggested by C. Souchock

W. Harless suggested researching the house located at 49000 North Territorial Road. An interview is already scheduled. The end result will identify why the house is important to Plymouth Townships' history as well as give the owners a plaque.

Update and expand the Historic District Commission (HDC) booklet.

Starting the work on the 200 Bicentennial of Plymouth Township and possible cost. B. Eikey suggested gathering information on businesses that are 50 years old or older. B. Eikey offered his time to engage the interest of township residents as well. W. Harless suggested highlighting Plymouth Township residents who have lived in the township for a long time.

C. Souchock indicated the subcommittee for the podcast talked about completing transcriptions of the podcast that would be posted on the HDC webpage as another goal to consider.

D. Cebulski suggested exploring the history of churches and schools.

Four podcasts for 2024.

Dedication ceremony for the installation of the historic marker.

C. Azimi suggested increasing the marketing of the HDC through podcasts and the webpage.

7) OLD BUSINESS

a) Set meeting dates for 2024

1. The October meeting may be in the upstairs conference room due to early voting in the national election.

Due to elections, other dates are being considered. It was suggested to consider the conference room on the 2nd floor which worked well in a previous meeting.

2. December 19, 2024, will be the meeting date for the HDC.

b) Our new Google email group, update on using this – Dennis Cebulski.

D. Cebulski has reactivated the original email. Bob Janks is still working on establishing an email group.

c) Podcast updates — Ben Eikey

1. Intro to the HDC, Shearer Cemetery, St. Johns – all available for everyone to listen to now on the Township's HDC page.

The Plymouth Township E-Newsletter will be the introduction to the podcast to include Jack Dempsey and the Shearer Cemetery.

2. 49000 North Territorial interviews set for February 29, 2024.

The interview will be centered around the family that lived in the home and the Art Attic.

3. Salem Train Wreck podcast

Scheduling interviews with Joe Oldenburg as well as an individual from the Michigan Railroad Association.

4. Cost so far: we have spent $483 of our $1250
Cost is coming in under budget. A new budget is to be established by July 2024.

C. Souchock shared that the Plymouth Rotary Club is celebrating its 100th anniversary. They had added cost with writing a book. Look at what added cost may come up with the podcast.

d) 200th Anniversary – Wendy Harless

1. Website timeline. Discuss each person's two ideas for the timeline. There was brainstorming with suggestions of naming the township, establishing public safety, education, and historic events were some of the ideas.

e) Shearer Cemetery — Wendy Harless

1. Spring Clean-up April 20, 2024 time?
Spring clean-up will take place at 10:00 a.m. on April 20, 2024.
Planner Haw shared a map of Shearer Cemetery with property boundaries.

2. We need to draft a policy for returning headstones.
No other city or township nearby has an established policy for returning a headstone. W. Harless will start a draft of the policy.

f) Triangle Park marker — Wendy Harless

1. We will be using funds from the Wayne County Parks millage to fund the historic marker.
It was confirmed the funds for the marker will come from the Wayne County Parks millage.
2. I met with the owner of Spectrum Signs and they are working to produce our marker.
The marker will be located by the butterfly garden and flower garden in the triangle.

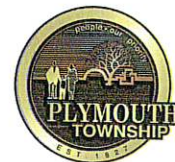

3. When do we want to hold a dedication ceremony? They said they can install it as soon as March.
The dedication ceremony date will take place this summer.

g) Reprinting our historic sites of Plymouth Township brochures. – Wendy Harless

1. Progressive has our files
2. The Supervisor approved printing 250 copies
Each commissioner of the HDC will take brochures to distribute. The online version is still being updated.

h) Any new Plymouth historic facts for the Township newsletter?
